THE ELECTIONS.

THE CONTEST IN RHODE ISLAND.

Success of the Democratic Ticket.

Scenes at the Polls—Prodigal and Undisguised Corruption.

THE RESULT IN CONNECTICUT.

Special Dispatch to the New-York Times.

PROVIDENCE, Wednesday, April 4.

Beyond a doubt, the combined Democratic and Conservative Republican ticket is successful in this State. The greatest excitement has attended the election, and every device which party tactics could suggest has been employed by both parties to secure their success.

The open purchase of votes has been a remarkable feature of the day. The voters, when led up to the ballot-box, would with one hand drop the ticket and with the other receive the bribe. The negro vote rated high, some colored brethren receiving $50 each. Individuals of comparative wealth declined to vote unless paid to do so. Voters publicly put themselves up for purchase. Bids would commence at $10 and run up to $50.

Great good humor and merriment prevailed all day. The excitement was intense. Bands of music, banners, decorated wagons, and hired conveyances of every description, paraded the streets from early morning till now.

The announcement of PADELFORD's unsuccessful attempt to bribe the Town Clerk of Cranston undoubtedly lost him a large vote. The action of the Democrats and Conservatives has been united; that of the Republicans was divided.

It is estimated that $150,000 has been spent. Large amounts have been bet on the result. The odds have been in favor of SPRAGUE. Padelford men have shown a disposition to hedge.

In other towns wholesale bribery was even more open and outrageous.

The disposition among many Republicans to vote for TURNER was counteracted by a notice from him requesting them to adhere to the party.

Bon-fires, cannon, liquor, cash and excitement abound. The Democrats are rejoicing that, with their registry taxes all paid by the Union party, they will go into the Presidential fight stronger than ever.

Good order has been maintained throughout. Everybody drinks, but everybody appears to be used to it.

Mr. SPRAGUE, the Governor elect is 28 years of age.

I have been furnished by both parties with a list of returns from the towns, so far as heard from; but as they vary so frequently and are as yet incomplete I will spare you the details. Providence gives SPRAGUE about 900 majority; Newport about 400; Warwick, Cranston, North Providence, Warren, Scituate, Johnstown and South Kingston give rousing majorities for SPRAGUE.

Smithfield, Cumberland, Westerly, Fall River, Hopkington and Bristol have given nominal majorities for PADELFORD. The SPRAGUE majority in the State will not be far from 1,500.

A collation is under way at the City Hotel. One hundred guns are being fired. A serenade will be given to the Governor elect as soon as the collation is down. SPRAGUE's friends enthusiastically call this a truly conservative victory; the Democrats allow the same. HOWARD.

From the Associated Press.

PROVIDENCE, R. I., Wednesday, April 4—Midnight.

The State has gone for WM. SPRAGUE, Democrat, for Governor, by a large majority.

Thirteen towns give SPRAGUE 3,808; PADELFORD, 3,692.

This city gives a large majority for SPRAGUE, and he is probably elected by not less than 1,500 majority.

The Legislature is also against the Republicans.

The Connecticut Election.

THE RESULT—HEAVY REPUBLICAN MAJORITY IN THE LEGISLATURE.

The New Haven Journal, of yesterday, gives returns from every town in the State except five. The Republican majority on the Gubernational ticket is 351. The remaining towns, it is thought, will increase this figure. The Courant claims 600 majority for BUCKINGHAM, but the returns show only the figures as stated by the Journal. The aggregate vote polled at this election was 86,000; an increase of nearly 6,000 over that of the Presidential campaign of 1856.

The following table presents a comparison of the votes of 1860 and 1856, by counties, omitting the five towns from which no returns for Governor have been received:

	GOVERNOR, 1860.		PRESIDENT, 1856.
Counties.	Buckingham. Rep.	Seymour. Dem.	Fremont. Rep.	Fillmore. Am.	Buch'n. Dem.

The Republican vote this year nearly equals that of the Republicans and Americans together in the Presidential election. The Democratic increase over 1856 is still larger.

HARTFORD, Conn., Wednesday, April 4.

The Courant figures, this morning, 14 Republican Senators out of the 21, and 60 majority in the House, against 17 last year.

HARTFORD, Conn., Wednesday, April 4.

Returns from every town in the State give BUCKINGHAM, Republican, for Governor, 536 majority. The official count, it is thought, will not vary the result much from these figures. The Republicans have 59 majority in the House, against 17 last year, and 7 majority in the Senate, against 5 last year. To-morrow night the Republicans have a grand torchlight procession and illumination in honor of their victory.

WATERBURY, Wednesday, April 4.

The Republicans of this city are celebrating their victory here by a grand torchlight procession, the Wide-Awakes in uniform, and citizens generally participating. A hundred guns are being fired, and the city is alive with enthusiasm and excitement.

SEIZURE OF AN ALLEGED LEGAL TRADER.—Information has been received in this city of the capture by the British steamer Falcon of the brig Jehosse, Capt. VINCENT, of this port, on the west coast of Africa. The last previously known of the Jehosse was her sailing for New-York. She was overhauled about the 20th of January, in the Gulf of Guinea, by the British cruiser, on suspicion of being engaged in the Slave-trade, and boarded. Every proper question was answered by Capt. VINCENT, but the right of search denied and resisted. Capt. VINCENT and his officers were carried on board the Falcon, and there subjected to great indignity, being stripped of their clothing and abused in an insulting manner by the epauletted officials of Queen Vic. While the officers were thus detained, the vessel was plundered, the cargo broken open, and the private trunks, desks, and stores on board her rifled. A prize crew was put on board, and sail made for the coast. The first night was a scene of demoniac revelry. The prize crew had pillaged the liquor from the stores of the Jehosse, and were helplessly drunk; indeed, so far were they stupefied, that the commander of the Falcon withdrew them, and placed a new crew on board the brig. The Jehosse was taken into Whydaw; but, after several days' detention, she was, on the 6th of February, tendered to her officers, who refused to accept of her restoration. Capt. VINCENT, at last advices, was awaiting the arrival of some of the United States Squadron, to lay his grievances before the proper authorities. From all accounts, the affair was certainly a high-handed one, and Capt. VINCENT and his crew deserve ample reparation and heavy damages.—Charleston Mercury, April 2.

STATUARY FOR THE CAPITOL.—Two cases of statuary that lately arrived from Italy were on the 3d opened in the old hall of the House of Representatives. They contained two large white marble statues by CRAWFORD, one representing Justice and the other History, intended for one of the great bronze doors on the east front of the Capitol.

FROM WASHINGTON.

Senators Pugh and Wigfall on the Homestead Bill.

More of the Mormons in the House.

SPEECH OF MR. NELSON, OF TENNESSEE.

Special Dispatch to the New-York Times.

WASHINGTON, Wednesday, April 4.

NEW-YORK OFFICIALS STILL UNDER INVESTIGATION.

Messrs. SCHELL and BUTTERWORTH were before the Investigating Committee again to-day. Mr. SCHELL still refused to furnish a list of subscribers to the New-York Hotel fund, if he had one, which he did not admit, though he thought he had some names. The Committee adopted a resolution to be reported to the House, asking that the witness be brought before the House for contempt in refusing to produce the list.

Mr. BUTTERWORTH also appeared before the Committee and was informed that Mr. HASKIN declined furnishing copies of his (BUTTERWORTH's) letters, but that he had no objection to his own being exhibited. Mr. BUTTERWORTH said that he would prefer his letters being produced as explanatory of Mr. HASKIN's replies, but with the latter's consent the replies would be forthcoming. They were then opened and read, to the great amusement of the Committee. In these letters Mr. HASKIN urges Mr. BUTTERWORTH to stand by the President's Lecompton policy, and not to run after BOB WALKER and DOUGLAS. This was three weeks after the Lecompton Message was communicated. In the January following he speaks of the necessity of the enabling act, and appeals to Mr. BUTTERWORTH in these words: "Where shall I go?" It is understood that all paragraphs touching Kansas will be extracted from this correspondence and entered as part of the testimony, and Mr. HASKIN may produce Mr. BUTTERWORTH's letter touching the same subject. He is to have another opportunity to do so. Some of the letters of HASKIN are exceedingly rich in style, particularly one making reference to an interview the writer had with Secretary TOUCEY.

The following colloquy transpired during Mr. BUTTERWORTH's examination:

Mr. COVODE—You said yesterday you regarded some of the questions impertinent, and such as the Committee had no right to ask. Have you had any conversation since with the President on this point?

Mr. BUTTERWORTH—No, Sir; I have seen the President but once, and that was at the public levee. He inquired if the Committee had gotten through with me; that was all which passed on the subject.

Mr. COVODE—Has the President not advised you, since you were last before the Committee, that it had only certain powers, and that you could refuse to answer.

Mr. BUTTERWORTH—The President would hardly venture to advise me on that subject, after a practice of twenty years at the bar. I feel competent to determine such a question for myself. I have already stated, the only conversation I had with the President since I was last before the Committee.

The witness is to appear before the Committee again to-morrow, to file the Kansas correspondence alluded to above.

THE DIFFICULTY WITH MEXICO.

The Government here is in receipt of intercepted correspondence of MIRAMON with Com. MARIN, showing the object of the former to blockade the entire Mexican coast; also of the protest of the French naval commander in the Gulf against the course of Capt. JARVIS, in which the French official assigns as the reason for protesting in a matter in which he was in no way interested, that an attack might hereafter be made upon French ships. Such diplomatic display will hardly please his Imperial master, and the result to this new disciple of VATTEL may be the loss of his epaulettes.

Letters from the British Consul, under date March 21st, to his Legation here, represent the loss and damage to British property in Vera Cruz as very great. Steps will be taken immediately to secure indemnity for the loss, and to hold MIRAMON for its payment. The British Consul says there is no doubt that MIRAMON has totally abandoned his project of taking Vera Cruz.

The Administration continues to approve, entirely, the course pursued by our officers, in spite of the different versions of the facts surrounding them. It is understood in official circles that the prisoners will be discharged, and the steamers surrendered to them.

RAILROADS IN THE CAPITAL.

The Baltimore and Ohio Railroad Company will present to Congress to-morrow a memorial praying permission to connect their lines by constructing a track through the tunnel east of the Capitol, and by building a bridge on piles alongside of the present bridge over the Potomac. In the meantime they ask liberty to run horse-cars along the streets leading to the bridge. This application will be backed by powerful influence, and there seems to be no sound objection to it.

CONGRESSIONAL AMENITIES.

An angry passage occurred to-day in the House between Messrs. GROW and BARKSDALE, which caused a momentary excitement, but which soon passed over.

The Star pronounces the dispatch to the New York Leader, giving the particulars of a scrimmage between Messrs. CLAY and CLINGMAN, as slanderous. I am enabled, upon good authority, to say it is strictly correct, except in one particular. Mr. CLAY was not knocked down, though struck a severe blow. Senators had hold of Mr. CLAY, but he jerked his right arm loose and struck before he could be prevented. No injury was done on either side. An explanation soon followed, and the parties were reconciled.

POLYGAMY IN UTAH.

There is no doubt of the passage of the law by the House, to-morrow, making polygamy an offence in Utah. The impression is that it will pass the Senate, but the law will be a dead letter before Mormon juries.

CONGRESS AND THE PRESIDENT.

Congress and the Chief Executive of the Nation are now fully at loggerheads. It no longer remains a question for friendly intervention or arbitration, which is greater of the two—the House of Representatives or Mr. BUCHANAN. The Judiciary Committee met this morning and authorized Mr. HICKMAN, Chairman of the Committee, to report adversely to the position taken by Mr. BUCHANAN in his protest, touching the right of Congress to investigate, by preliminary proceedings, the acts of the President or any subordinate officer of the Government, prior to the filings of any charge against them. What the express grounds taken by the Committee are, of course we shall be unable to tell until the report is drawn and submitted to the House. The Committee made short work of it, and so will Mr. HICKMAN in his part, and the report will, therefore, probably be put in during the last of the present week.

We may judge to some extent of the nature of the report of the Committee from the propositions set down for their consideration by the President.

His first protest is against the exercise of accusatory powers by Congress, except in case of impeachment, where the charge has been fully made by parties other than Congress, and duly considered by the House. In this case he admits the right of the House to accuse even the President, and bring him to his trial in the Senate; but he claims that that body has no right to institute a charge itself, and proceed to the investigation of it. The Committee must, therefore, have overruled this point.

His next point is, that the House has only power to proceed in such cases as remedial action. This the Committee must also overrule.

His next proposition is in this language: "Except in this single case (impeachment) the Constitution has invested the House of Representatives with no power, no jurisdiction, no supremacy whatever over the President." The Committee does not seem to entertain the same view of the importance of the President as he does himself. They seem to have a much more elevated opinion of their own body than of the Executive.

His next proposition is eminently flattering to himself. It is:

> "Indeed he (the President) is the only direct representative on earth of the people of all and each of the sovereign States. To them and to them alone is he responsible while acting within the sphere of his constitutional duty."

Here again the Judiciary Committee disagree with His Excellency. They have instructed Mr. HICKMAN—who by the way does not love the President particularly—to say to the House that in their opinion Mr BUCHANAN is to some degree responsible to them, especially as they have good grounds for the belief that he has overstepped the bounds of his constitutional duty. The Committee evidently believe that although, according to Mr. BUCHANAN, "his office is the most dignified in the world," and that "no one, except the people, have a right to inquire into his action," that they represent the people, and in that capacity they call upon him to answer the charges against him, and claim an unlimited right to investigate.

They do not deny any of the other privileges claimed by the President, nor do they seem at all deterred from the performance of what they deem to be their duties by his declaration that he "will defend them (what he claims to be his rights and prerogatives) to the last extremity." What this "last extremity" is we are not told, but it probably relates to the decision of the Supreme Court upon the constitutional rights and prerogatives of the President. The result of an appeal to the Supreme Court is inevitable. It is in the President's control. There is no doubt that an expression of legal opinion by Mr. BUCHANAN, upon a point touching his rights, would be equivalent to a decision by the Supreme Court. But it is equally certain that the House, with all due respect to the President, will proceed with the investigations they have inaugurated, in any contingency.

PROCEEDINGS OF THE COMMITTEE.

There are facts connected with the proceedings of the Committee which have not yet been made public. The Committee agreed, soon after it commenced its sessions, that inasmuch as the evidence would probably reflect dishonorably upon the President, before the evidence should be closed, or a report made upon it, a transcript of all the testimony should be submitted to Mr. BUCHANAN, that he might have the opportunity to take such action upon it or make such explanations as he saw fit. This was done. The President never complained or filed protest until he discovered that the Committe had such evidence as would reflect lasting disgrace upon him and ruin the party of which he is the head. I am assured by one who knows all the evidence in the case, that these are facts, and that the charges substantiated by the testimony before Mr. COVODE's Committee are most conclusive of the knowledge of the President of gross and shameful frauds.

But the question between the Republican House and Democratic "J. B." is still an open one. "The white hairs" of the latter will not shield him from exposition. When it comes up in the House from the Committee, the contest will be a sharp and bitter one If the charges against the President are shown by the report of Mr. COVODE's Committee, there will be very little legislation after that, and the question of superiority will have to be settled by the people in November next. We await the reports from both the Judiciary and Mr. COVODE's Committee with anxiety.

THE HARLEM RIVER IMPROVEMENT.

The Committee on Commerce have before them bills, offered by Mr. HASKIN, of New-York, appropriating two hundred thousand dollars for removing the rocks and deepening the Hurl Gate channel; also an appropriation of fifty thousand dollars for dredging and otherwise improving the channel of Harlem River. These are things much needed by the commercial interests of New-York, and the advantages of such improvements cannot be estimated. The bills were placed in the hands of Mr. ELIOTT, of Massachusetts, who at once set himself to the examination of them. He has reported them back to the Committee favorably, with a very strong argument in their favor, so that the unanimous report of the Committee in favor of the bills is considered certain. If they become a law, those interested in the navigation of those rivers will owe much to the energy and perseverance of Messrs. HASKIN and ELIOTT, for securing so large an appropriation.

THE PRESIDENT AND VICE-PRESIDENT.

Much has been said about Mr. BUCHANAN's preferences for his successor—HUNTER, BRECKINRIDGE, JOE LANE, DICKINSON, and a host of them—all except DOUGLAS—have claimed that honor. The following anecdote, the truthfulness of which is vouched for by a gentleman who was present; illustrates the estimation in which "Old Buck" holds "Breck." The story is told as follows;

A few days since several Virginia politicians called at the White House, to pay their respects to the President, and in the course of the conversation Mr. B. related the following with great glee: "When Vice-President BRECKINRIDGE visited Kentucky last December, for the purpose of making his speech before the Legislature, he met Gen. LESLIE COMBS, the old Clay leader of the Whig Party, of that State, and addressed him as follows: 'Gen. COMBS, you have performed longer service, and more valuable service, to your party, with less reward, than any living man.' To which Gen. COMBS promptly replied: 'Major BRECKINRIDGE, you have performed shorter service, and less service, for your party, with greater reward, than any living man." Whereupon, they 'liquored.'"

Mr. BUCHANAN narrated this story to his friends with great gusto, adding that "many a truth was spoken in jest, and he thought the old General about right in his estimation of the Vice-President's services."

DOUGLAS AND HUNTER.

It is rumored that the friends of DOUGLAS and HUNTER will meet again to negotiate. How they propose to arrange matters remains a secret, but it is more than probable that HUNTER will demand the first chance. DOUGLAS' friends here, many of them at least, say that he cannot be put off again for four years. It has been done twice already.

A lengthy conversation with a leading Democratic politician from the South convinces me that they would prefer any Southern man, LANE of Oregon, or DICKINSON of New-York, to DOUGLAS, but will take the latter, in case of necessity, rather than see a Republican elected.

PRESIDENTIAL SPECULATIONS.

Senator KING expresses the opinion, that the fact that the Republicans carry Connecticut and Rhode Island, makes Mr. SEWARD's nomination at Chicago inevitable.

Speculations upon Presidential chances are all the vogue here, and active preparations are going on for both Conventions, among the members of Congress. The plan now is, if the House refuses to adjourn over for the Charleston Convention, to pair off, so that less than a quorum will remain, so that no business can be transacted. This dodge may effect an adjournment for ten days or more. Q.

From the Associated Press.

WASHINGTON, Wednesday, April 4.

The House Select Committee has agreed to report a Pacific Railroad bill on the following plan of location, as proposed by Col. CURTIS—namely, starting from two points, one on the western border of of Missouri, and the other on the western border of Iowa, with two converging lines bearing westward and uniting within two hundred miles of the Missouri River, thence proceeding by a single trunk line by the nearest and best route to the Bay of San Francisco or to the navigable waters of Sacramento.

SENATE.

WASHINGTON, Wednesday, April 4.

The Chair laid before the Senate the correspondence between the Attorney-General and Judges of Utah relative to the judicial proceedings of that Territory. Laid on the table.

Mr. THOMPSON, of New-Jersey, (Dem.,) presented the resolution of the New-Jersey Legislature, in favor of an increase of the duty on imported goods, and in favor of the House Homestead bill.

Mr. KING, of New-York, (Rep.,) introduced a bill for the relief of the representatives of ROBERT MORRIS' late Postmaster of New-York. Passed.

Mr. GREEN, of Missouri, (Dem.,) moved that the resolutions offered by him yesterday, censuring the Comptroller of the Treasury, for a decision defeating the expressed will of Congress, and for refusing to obey its order, thereby incurring the disapprobation of Congress, which renders it improper that he longer remain in office, be referred to a committee.

Mr. SAULSBURY, of Delaware, (Dem.) said he believed the resolution was calculated to injure this gentleman, whom he believed to be a gentleman faithful in the discharge of his duty. The proposition is a novel one. Whose is it? Certain persons have applied for a claim for alleged damages. He reports adversely to their claims, and makes that report on the written opinion of the Attorney-General. Called upon by the Postmaster-General, he made this report conformable to the opinion of the highest law-officer of this Government. And because he has thus done his duty he is arraigned before the Senate by resolutions reflecting on his official character, and expressing the opinion that he ought to be removed. Private claimants against this Government, because the officer acting under the opinion of the Attorney-General reports adversely, come here and ask the Senate to entertain a proposition reflecting on the credit of the officer. If it were not for the great respect I have for my friend from Missouri, I should move to postpone this resolution indefinitely, or at least till the 5th of March next. I will not do so, but, as this claim was raised by an alleged breach of contract by the Postmaster-General, I think the Post-Office Committee is a proper reference.

Mr. GREEN—The Senator does not state the case correctly. Originally, it was in the position he now states. It was a claim growing out of what was alleged to be a breach of contract. Congress passed a law stating that the contract having been made and abrogated, the First-Comptroller should assess the damages thereof. The making of the contract and its abrogation are facts affirmed by Congress. Whether any damage has accrued, I do not know. This question we have nothing to do with. But the Comptroller says there was no contract, and is the Senator just to bring up this question, improperly as I conceive?

Mr. PUGH, of Ohio, (Dem.)—The resolutions were offered yesterday. The day before yesterday Col. MEDILL returned to Ohio on account of illness, and I suggest to the Senator that he allow these resolutions to lie over for a day or two that I may have time to make some inquiries. I assure him that Gov. MEDILL will meet any investigation anywhere, and before any Committee, and there will not be found a stain upon his character.

Mr. GREEN—I will reply to the Senator from Ohio.

Mr. PUGH—I will call up the resolution at any time.

Mr. GREEN—Mr. MEDILL was here when the resolution was offered. I know what I say, and no man can contradict it. Before he left, a copy of these resolutions was sent to him, and he read it. No person is taken by surprise. This has been a straightforward affair from the beginning up to the present period. When these resolutions were prepared, I put them in the shape I thought least objectionable, and a copy was delivered to him before he left, which was yesterday evening, as I am told.

Mr. BAYARD, of Delaware, (Dem.)—My opinion is just the contrary. He left yesterday morning.

Mr. GREEN—Well, that is my information. I do not wish to prejudge the case. Although the Senator from Delaware says the Attorney-General bolsters him up, I say there are the opinions of two Attorney-Generals directly to the contrary. This is not a question of law, but a question affecting the dignity and power of Congress. The Senate and House of Representatives, and the Executive, approve a measure, and assert a certain rule for the purpose of adjudicating an account, and I deny the right of any officer to set at defiance Congress, the Executive, and law. I want the law executed. As to the amount of damage, I have not one word to say, but it is to vindicate a principle. I do not know either one of these parties; never saw one of them, and never expect to, but I maintain that when Congress passes a law, and it is approved by the Executive, no one officer of this Government has a right to disregard it and set it aside, unless it be a violation of the Constitution. The Senator from Delaware went improperly, as I think, into the merits of the case. All I ask is that it be referred and investigated, for I know it is a case worthy of investigation.

The Chair called up the special order.

Mr. BAYARD moved to postpone it for ten minutes. He defended Mr. MEDILL, who, he said, had been sick for some time, and had left on that account. But his objection to the resolution was, it was improper and irregular to make the Senate an accusing body.

Mr. GREEN moved to postpone the special order another ten minutes.

Mr. PUGH—I object to any such motion.

Mr. GREEN—I do not yield the floor.

Mr. PUGH—I will object to the motion.

Mr. GREEN—I will not yield the floor, and no man has a right to take it from me. I call the gentleman to order.

Mr. BENJAMIN, of Louisiana, (Dem.)—If that motion is made I shall object, as, if this is continued, I have some amendments I wish to move.

Mr. GREEN—I object to any discussion. You shall not discuss the resolution on this motion.

Mr. BENJAMIN—I do not permit any gentleman to tell me I shall not do anything.

Mr. GREEN—I mean you are not in order, and I will call on the presiding officer to enforce the rules.

Mr. BENJAMIN—Very well; then address yourself to the presiding officer.

Mr. GREEN—I do, Sir.

Mr. BENJAMIN—I was going on to say, when I was interrupted in a manner somewhat discourteous, at least—but that I leave to the Senate—that I should object, because we would not have time to dispose of this matter, and because I have some amendments to offer.

Mr. GREEN—I have no objection to such reasons; but when you undertake to discuss the merits of the resolutions, I will object.

Before the resolutions were disposed of, the Homestead bill came up as the special order.

Mr. PUGH proceeded to contrast the Senate and House bills. He believed the operation of the bill should be limited to heads of families, otherwise sham preëmptions would lead to fraud and corruption. A man's family would bind him to the soil for its improvement, and thus there should be a discrimination between the married and unmarried man. The Senate bill was a wise measure for revenue and economy. It gave sixty millions of acres for homesteads, which was enough for all in the United States who desire to go there. He read numerous acts showing that Congress had, time after time, donated the public lands to towns, mail routes, and States; and in view of all this, it was said the Homestead bill proposed some great revolution in the land system, to destroy the public revenue, when the fact was it was but the same principle that had been guiding the system relative to the public domain since the earliest days of the Republic. The policy of the General Government in its donations of lands had acted unjustly toward new States. The first excuse was that the sale of the lands was to liquidate the debt; but when that was paid a second and third arose. He did not believe that the passage of the bill would injure the revenue, for, under the graduation act, the price decreased from time to time, and the Homestead bill would bring other lands into market. The Secretary of the Interior had said in his report, that all the lands failed as a source of Federal revenue, except those subject to private entry. The bill would improve the sources for revenue. He thought it time to cease donating lands for the benefit of colleges, schools, asylums, and railroad corporations, unless they were located on the lands. The Senator from Texas (Mr. WIGFALL) had denominated this a party question, but this was rather late in the day, inasmuch as a Homestead bill passed the same House that passed the Kansas-Nebraska act.

Mr. WIGFALL, of Texas, (Dem.,) disclaimed wishing to make it a party test. He proceeded at length, and said donations of alternate sections would prevent the sale of the public lands. The passage of the bill would be the abandonment of the revenue, and also an expense to the Government, and it would be better to give $160 out of the Treasury to the homeless than to donate land and go to the expense of establishing land offices to survey it. His Railroad bill was for practical purposes, for transmitting naval and military stores. The Homestead bill was for paupers. It was popular to talk of the poor. Poverty, he said, was a crime. The man who was poor had sinned, and there was a screw loose in his head somewhere. He would amend the title of the bill to read "For the encouragement of crime, providing for criminals, and violating the Constitution." It was popular, he repeated, to talk of the bone and sinew of the land, of wool, hats and brogans, but poverty was a crime. He would not pander to prejudice by such talk. The bill provided for the purlieus of London, the Five Points of New-York, and criminals who violate the law when they get on the lands. The bill provides for those who could not provide for themselves. Gentlemen tried to be popular in the introduction of such a bill. It was a great mistake of any man to suppose that the people had no sense. [Laughter.] These lands would be occupied by the outpourings of jails, etc., and when they were represented in Congress, he would like to see the man who wore the ermine. Great God! what a sight it would be!

Mr. WILKINSON, of Minnesota, (Rep.,) asked if Texas did not give away lands to her own citizens and foreigners.

Mr. WIGFALL asked if the Senator was not once a Democrat?

Mr. WILKINSON said he never was.

Mr. WIGFALL replied that Texas could please her own fancy. She had a right to do what she pleased with her own property, to give it to a Missionary Society, to publish a Bible, or to gamble it off in hell. [Laughter.] Texas was a free sovereign State, and exercised rights which were not delegated to this miserable one-horse concern in Washington. [Renewed laughter.] He had understood Mr. WILKINSON to say he was a Know-Nothing.

Mr. WILKINSON replied that he did not say so. The Senator was a little obtuse to-day. [Laughter.]

Mr. WIGFALL continued at length. He thought the patronage of the Government in this respect ought to be given to the States. The bill would exclude slaveholders from the Territories, and provide for paupers and a fanatical population. It would be a free-soil country.

Mr. SUMNER, of Massachusetts, (Rep.,) offered a resolution, which was adopted, that the President be requested, if in his opinion it is not inconsistent with the public interest, to furnish to the Senate copies of all correspondence not heretofore called for, relating to the claim of a foreign government to the military service of naturalized American citizens. Adjourned.

HOUSE OF REPRESENTATIVES.

WASHINGTON, Wednesday, April 4.

Mr. WASHBURNE, of Illinois, (Rep.,) gave notice of a bill to erect a Custom-house and Post-office at Waukegan.

Mr. STANTON, of Ohio, (Rep.,) from the Military Committee, reported back the West Point Appropriation bill, with a recommendation by a bare majority of the Committee, that the House non-concur in the Senate amendment providing for calling into service a regiment of Texas Volunteers.

Mr. CURTIS, of Iowa, (Rep.,) as a member of the Committee, said he would have voted in favor of the amendment if the President and Secretary of War, in their communication in response to a call of the House, had said they thought this additional force necessary, but they both studiously avoided an expression of opinion on the subject.

Mr. STANTON moved that the subject be made the special order for Tuesday.

Mr. REAGAN, of Texas, (Dem.,) said early action should be taken in order that the people of Texas may know whether they may have hope for protection.

Mr. SHERMAN, of Ohio, (Rep.,) remarked that this amendment proposed an appropriation of one million of dollars. It were better that the bill should be defeated and the new one introduced, rather than that the Senate should load it down with irrelevant amendments and make it a special order.

The House, by seven majority, refused to make it the special order for Tuesday.

The House then resumed the consideration of the Anti-Polygamy bill.

Mr. KEITT, of South Carolina, (Dem.) characterized polygamy as a grave and high offense, but denied that Congress has power in the premises. It was not a crime against the United States. Congress cannot legislate wisely and properly for the Territories. He said that if the Federal Government had any power whatever in the matter, as asserted by gentlemen, it had the power to make the Territorial Governments pass laws for the protection of property, and if the Territorial Government failed to do this, then the Federal Government could alter the legislature of that Territory, and put another there which would pass such laws.

Mr. GOOCH, of Massachusetts, (Rep.,) offered an amendment, not differing in general principles, but in the details, from the bill under consideration. He designed to limit its operation to Utah. This Government has the power, and it was its duty, not only to declare polygamy a crime, but to provide punishment therefor.

Mr. BARKSDALE, of Mississippi, (Dem.,) asked the gentleman whether, under the same power to prohibit polygamy, he would not draw the power to exclude Slavery. So far as he was concerned, he saw a vast difference between prohibiting a crime and excluding property from the Territories. What was the gentleman's opinion?

Mr. GOOCH replied that he, and those with whom he associated, were not responsible for the introduction of Slavery in this discussion. The gentleman is from a slaveholding community—from the same State as his (BARKSDALE's) colleague (LAMAR,) who yesterday brought Slavery into the consideration of this question. The gentleman from New-York (OLIN) alluded to it only in response to an interrogatory. On the Republican side the institution of Slavery had not been drawn into the discussion.

Mr. BARKSDALE—Then you decline to answer the question.

Mr. GOOCH replied that he believed under the Constitution Congress has the power to prohibit Slavery in the Territories. When this question comes before the House, he would tell the gentleman whence he derived the power. He reviewed the schemes of his colleague (THAYER) and another gentleman, (MCCLERNAND,) saying it was utterly futile to commit the Mormons to the infant settlements of Pike's Peak and Nevada.

Mr. THAYER, of Massachusetts, (Rep.,) replied that one of the delegates from those Territories says that they are entirely willing to take the responsibility; and further, that the Mormons, in great numbers, are traveling toward Pike's Peak and Carson Valley to engage in mining.

Mr. GOOCH had no doubt that they were willing to do all they could to get a territorial organization. He was, however, told this morning by one of those delegates that they wished to have nothing to do with the Mormons.

Mr. BRANCH, of North Carolina, (Dem.,) called the gentleman's attention to that part of the Republican platform which declares Congress has sovereign power over the Territories, and in exercising that power can prohibit those twin relics of barbarism, polygamy and slavery in the Territories.

Mr. GOOCH replied that they now had one of the relics of barbarism here, and it was their duty to suppress it. He believed Congress has full power over all rightful subjects of legislation in the Territories, subject only to the Constitution.

Mr. BRANCH—Do you believe Congress possesses sovereign power in the Territories?

Mr. GOOCH replied that he believed Congress has full power, with the limitation named. If he had been in the Philadelphia Convention he would not have used the word "sovereign power." He did not understand that Republicans believe Congress can pass any act in conflict with the Constitution.

Mr. THAYER wished to know what kind of sovereignty his colleague preferred—that kind which existed in Egypt under Pharaoh, based on Corn, or that among the people of the Territories, based on Land.

Mr. GOOCH replied, as he did not recognize either kind of sovereignty, he could not answer the question.

Mr. SIMMS, of Kentucky, (Dem.,) did not know that a bachelor has a right to discuss this question. It was not to be supposed that a bachelor knows much about matrimonial affairs, but as those who belong to the matrimonial ranks have raised the difficulties, he hoped the House would excuse a bachelor for coming in as a peacemaker in this quarrel. He proceeded to advocate the bill on the ground that polygamy is a violation of individual rights—a violation of all the rights of the people in well-organized Territories. Slaves, he argued, in reply to what had been previously said in the debate, were recognized as property, and as such, the holders of slaves were entitled to protection. He then proceeded to speak of the violation of law by the Mormons, and of their having instigated the Indians to the commission of crimes, and made treaties with them.

Mr. HOOPER, the delegate from Utah, said some of these charges emanated from a most infamous source, namely, Judge DRUMMOND, who took to Utah a female not his wife, and placed her beside him on the bench. It was on such representations that the Government had sent the army against the peaceable citizens of the Territory.

Mr. MCCLERNAND, of Illinois, (Dem.,) wished to know on what authority Mr. HOOPER said Judge DRUMMOND appeared on the judicial bench with a courtesan?

Mr. HOOPER—From the knowledge of sight-seeing. I saw it myself. [Laughter.]

Mr. SIMMS wished to know whether or not it was true that the Mormons declared war against the United States; whether they do not acknowledge the Church as the only supreme power, and whether they have not a peculiar coin of their own, etc. He caused to be read a letter from Camp Floyd, attributing certain violations of law to the Mormons.

Mr. HOOPER remarked that some things therein he knew to be false. The Mormons are fallible, but when he heard wholesale charges against them, and their being spoken of contemptuously, it made his blood course rapidly in his veins. He scouted the false charges and imputations heaped on his people. At some other time he would discuss these matters fully. The coining of money was among the other crimes attributed to them. This is explained by saying that after the Mormon battalion were discharged after the Mexican war, some went into Col. SUTTER's employment, and while digging a race for the construction of a mill, they made the first gold discovery. On returning to Utah they took their dust with them, and having constructed a rude mint, put it into coin. It was pure, and answered for circulating purposes in the absence of the coins of the United States, and was subject to whatever standard the Government might prescribe. They had a right to change the form of their treasure.

Mr. SIMMS said he could appreciate the feelings of the gentleman, and he had spoken of polygamy as a crime against the common law.

Mr. NELSON, of Tennessee, (Dem.,) moved the previous question, which occasioned not a little confusion, as some gentlemen designed to debate the subject.

Mr. LOGAN, of Illinois, (Dem.,) amid the noise, charged that the floor had been farmed out to certain gentlemen by contract with the Speaker.

The Republicans vigorously called him to order.

The main question was ordered to be put, 114 against 75.

Mr. NELSON having reported this bill, was allowed an hour to close the debate. He commenced by speaking of the second section of the bill, which proposes to repeal the act of the Territorial Legislature incorporating the Church of Latter Day Saints. It was the most extraordinary ever enacted on this continent. It was a dangerous corporation, whose power was contrary to the spirit of our institutions. The Mormon Church exercises all the power of Government. Rome, in its palmiest days, had not conferred on it such powers as are found in this corporation. Besides, it was violative of the Constitution of the United States, and therefore it was the duty of Congress to repeal it. Murder, rapine and other crimes were perpetrated by authority of that so-called Church. He showed that Congress has power to repeal or supervise the laws of that territory, the authority being found in the act establishing the Territorial Government of Utah. Without concluding, he gave away for a motion to adjourn, which prevailed.

MURDERS.—At Louisville, Ky., March 30, a private watchman named JOHN G. YENNER was shot and instantly killed by one CHARLES JUNOT, also a watchman. The parties had quarreled about the smoking of a cigar.... At Newark, N. J., April 1, a German named HERRMANN VOLKER killed an Irishman named JOHN MASTERSON during a quarrel .... At New-Orleans, March 29, THOMAS MAGUIRE, a steamboat hand, was killed in a bar-room by a stranger, who fled, and has not yet been arrested.

FROM ALBANY.

ALBANY, Wednesday, April 4.

The Senate Railroad Committee heard the stage proprietors and others interested in the New-York City Railroads to-day. The Committee favor the bills.

The Supply bill is perfected and will be reported to-morrow.

SENATE.

ALBANY, Wednesday, April 4.

The bill to abolish the Almshouse Department was taken up.

Mr. SPINOLA moved to recommit the bill, on the ground that serious charges had been preferred against the Ten Governors, who had no opportunity to defend themselves.

Mr. ROBERTSON opposed the motion, and charged, on his own responsibility, that gross bribery and corruption existed in the Department.

Mr. SPINOLA warmly defended the Governors, denouncing the charges as emanating from a corrupt, prostituted press. The bill was not to aid the taxpayers, but had its origin in intrigues. Designing men, who desired to get everything within their grasp, had the entire control of every department of the City Government.

Before taking the question, the hour for the special order, the report of the Conference Committee on the Railroad Toll bill, arrived.

Mr. FIERO moved to appoint a new Conference Committee. Lost, 14 to 14.

After a long debate the motion to recede from the Senate bill was laid on the table, 16 to 15.

The bill to abolish the Almshouse Department, and establish a Board of Public Charities, was further debated by Messrs. COLVIN, ROBERTSON and SPINOLA, and referred to a Select Committee to report complete.

The following bills were ordered to a third reading:

Relative to the University of New-York City.

To amend the Constitution and abolishing the property qualification.

To provide for the appointment of Inspectors and Canvassers in New-York.

The bill to incorporate the Southwestern Mining and Land Company was reported favorably.

The bill to legalize the notices and advertisements published in the Evening Journal was passed.

Also the Assembly bill to protect game and fish.

J. MCLEOD MURPHY offered a concurrent resolution, advocating the passage by Congress of a bill to increase and regulate the pay of the United States Navy. Laid over.

Mr. ROBERTSON introduced concurrent resolutions asking Congress for postal arrangements between Mexico and the United States. Laid over.

Pending the motion to take from the table the motion to recede from the amendments of the Senate to the Assembly Toll bill, the Senate adjourned.

ASSEMBLY.

ALBANY, Wednesday, April 4.

Hon. SAMUEL A. LAW appeared in the Assembly Chamber to-day for the first time since his severe attack of illness. He continues very weak, and only remained in the House a short time.

The bill to create Cohtocton County was ordered to a third reading.

The bill to divide the Sixth Jucicial District of New-York came up for a third reading.

Mr. GOVER moved to strike out the enacting clause, which motion, after a debate, was lost. The bill was then passed.

Mr. VAN HORN called from the table the bill to abolish capital punishment.

The House, on his motion, substituted the bill introduced by Mr. FINCH, which limits capital punishment to treason, murder and arson in the first degree, and punishes murder in the second degree with imprisonment for life. It defines murder in the first degree to be by poison, assassination, premeditation, or while committing burglary or robbery, and provides that no execution shall take place within twelve months from the time of sentence, nor until the Governor's warrant issues.

The bill was then read the third time and passed, 94 to 9.

Mr. WEBSTER asked unanimous consent to move forward the bill to commute the death sentence of MARY HARTUNG.

Mr. FITCH objected.

The Canal Appropriation bill was passed.

The motion to restore the Chenango Canal appropriation was lost.

AFTERNOON SESSION.

A communication was received from the Cashier of the Hollister Bank, Buffalo, in response to the inquiries of the Assembly whether any interest was paid for deposits to the United States Court for the Northern District, from which, and from the remarks of Mr. O. ALLEN, it appeared that the managers of the bank, by consent of Judge HALL, after consultation with Judge NELSON and other eminent men, had contributed or donated certain sums of money to purchase books for the law library of the Northern District, the property of the State, in consideration of the advantages derived by the bank from the deposits of the moneys of the court.

Several bills of private interest were passed, among others the following:

To compel better attendance at the offices of Clerks of Counties and Courts of Record.

To amend the Rural Cemetery Association act.

In relation to preferred causes in the Court of Appeals and Supreme Court.

Recess till 7 P. M.

EVENING SESSION.

On motion of Mr. MILLER, the bill in relation to the Quarantine of the port of New-York was reported complete.

A large number of other bills were reported complete.

The bill passed in the Senate to amend the Metropolitan Police Law was reported favorably.

The bill to empower the Board of Metropolitan Police to appoint bell-ringers came up for a third reading.

Mr. WEBSTER moved to recommit the bill, with instructions to strike out the first five sections, leaving in only a section compelling proprietors of tenement houses to provide means of escape in case of fire. Agreed to.

The following bills were passed:

To authorize an addition to the Kings County Lunatic Asylum Building.

To amend the Brooklyn Drainge act.

To provide for the inspection of steam boilers in New-York and Brooklyn. The bill provides that all stationary engines shall be inspected once every six months, and imposes a fee of from $3 to $10 for each inspection, according to the power of the engine. It is calculated that there are 6,000 engines in the two cities. Adjourned.

THE SLAVER ORION.—The case of the Captain and mates of the slaver Orion is progressing before U. S. Commissioner HALLETT. On Tuesday, CHAS. L. WOODBURY appeared for the Government, and ELIAS MERWIN for the defendants. Mr. MERWIN moved for a postponement to Saturday—Thursday being Fast, and Friday Good Friday—that he might have opportunity to consult his clients. Mr. WOODBURY stated that Capt. TOTTEN, who was not present, had sealed packages of papers, which might be important in the case, of which he wished to get possession as soon as possible. After some conversation it was agreed that the prisoners should be remanded until Saturday. Two of the witnesses, whose services are not needed, were discharged. Capt. TOTTEN subsequently appeared, and the case was reopened. He testified that he received the three defendants in the harbor of St. Paul de Loando, on the West Coast of Africa, from Flag-Officer WILLIAM INMAN, commanding the United States forces in that part of the world, with instructions to deliver them to the United States Marshal. He also identified the package of papers addressed to Marshal FREEMAN, as having been received by him (witness) from Commodore INMAN and delivered to the Marshal. Mr. FREEMAN and Deputy-Marshal RILEY also identified the package as having been received from Capt. TOTTEN. The papers are the affidavits of the officers of the Mystic, the proceedings of the Vice-Admiralty Court at St. Helena, and the correspondence between the British and American officers on the subject. The case was then again continued as above.

SINGULAR CASE OF SHOOTING.—The Nashville Gazette, of the 1st inst., gives the following particulars of the sad occurrence, which the telegraph has already announced: Mr. TREWITT went to the hotel, and complaining of indisposition, desired the attendance of a physician. Dr. CAROW, whose office was immediately opposite the hotel, on Cedar-street, was accordingly sent for. A few minutes after Dr. CAROW entered the room of Mr. TREWITT, the report of a pistol was heard, and those who repaired thither to ascertain the cause were horrified upon finding Dr. C. sitting in his chair dead, from a pistol-shot in the back part of the neck. At the time he was killed, Dr. CAROW was in the act of writing a prescription, and was evidently sitting with his back to the man at whose hands he met his death. Mr. TREWITT was immediately taken into custody, and confined in jail to await examination, in view of which fact we forbear comment, further than to remark that it is presumed he was laboring under a fit of delirum tremens.

WEDNESDAY, April 4—P. M.

Another large business was done to-day in Stocks. There was less excitement on part of the Share list than yesterday and the day before, the fluctuations in New-York Central ranging between 78@77½ ₱ cent., but in State and Railway Bonds the demand was further increased, and prices generally advanced, all round. Missouris 82½ ₱ cent., Virginias 94, Tennessees 90⅝@¾; Erie firsts 101, seconds 94½, thirds 79@79¾, fourths 58, fifths 48, and the common Bonds 35½ ₱ cent.; Michigan Central 8 ₱ cents. sold at 94, ex-dividend; for the Southern seconds 49 ₱ cent. was bid this afternoon, and for Hudson thirds 86@87. The bonds of the New-York Central keep scarce, 93½ ₱ cent. bid for the 6 ₱ cent. certificates. The advance since yesterday on the State Securities named above is equal to ½ ₱ cent., on a diminished offering at the Board of Cash Stock, and less disposition to put out sellers' options on Missouris since the defeat of the new grant. One of the least exceptional points in the vetoed bill was the proposition to help the Pacific Company reach the Kansas border with their main line. This has now been put in a different form by authorizing the County of St. Louis, with whose interest the work is already strongly identified, to subscribe half a million of dollars to the stock of the road, if by a popular vote and direct taxation to raise the money, the people of the County think proper, and the object sufficiently important to do so. The Western Road Stocks were generally strongly in demand, and prices, until near the close of the dealings, were up to yesterday's currency, and, in the case of Cleveland and Toledo, Michigan Southern and Michigan Central, ahead of the previous quotations. The last week's traffic in March on the Galena Road is a third less than the same week last season, while the Rock Island is higher by about two thousand dollars on the week, and $11,467 better on the whole month. The speculative demand for Erie shares continues at 12½@12¾ ₱ cent., and all the stocks connected with the Anthracite Coal trade are higher; Delaware and Hudson, 97; Lackawanna, 85 ex dividend; Reading, 42½@¾; Pennsylvania, 84½. The movement in Pacific Mail, after carrying the price to 107½, fell back about 1 ₱ cent. in the afternoon. There was not much done in Panama, or in Hudson River or Harlem. At 4 o'clock the General Share market was somewhat dull, and prices quoted by some of the Brokers as weak.

There was nothing done in Exchange, calling for remark, after the Boston mail of yesterday. Another week of large Cotton export from the South, and over two millions miscellaneous Produce from New-York, keep the supply of bills fully up to the trade demand, at 108¾@⅞ on London. In Discounts we hear of nothing new. The inquiry for Money on temporary Loan holds fair this week, in consequence of the continued activity on the Stock Exchange. The rates range 5@6 ₱ cent.

A new firm of Discount and Exchange Brokers, Messrs. MUNN, BLACKHAM & MARSH, advertise their card in another column of this paper. Office under DUNCAN, SHERMAN & Co.'s Bank.

The following was to-day's business at the office of the Assistant Treasurer:

Total receipts	$69,667 70
Payments	169,606 00
Balance	7,909,725 83

Included in the receipts were $53,000 for Customs.

A private dispatch received to-day from Ohio advises that the Supreme Court of that State, in a very elaborate and able opinion, has affirmed the validity of railway mortgages in the most liberal sense, setting aside all the pleas raised in the case immediately before the Court of the Columbus, Piqua and Indiana Road, and holding that the franchise to use the road passes with the sale; though not the abstract charter itself.

The Superintendent of the Banking Department has called for the usual quarterly statement from each Bank of the State as on the morning of the 31st of March.

March, 1860	$76,241
March, 1859	64,774
Increase	$11,467

The earnings of the Galena and Chicago for March were:

	1859.	1860.

Second week	19,408	19,068
Third week	19,586	18,396
Fourth week	33,109	23,600
Total	$92,920	$78,967

The Hudson River Railroad, in the March traffic, which had the River competition against it ten days earlier this year than last, compares as follows:

March, 1859	$175,773 23
March, 1860	161,047 88
Decrease	$14,725 38

The following is a statement of the receipts of the first half of the fiscal year of 1859–'60, as compared with the same period of 1858–'59:

Messrs. WRIGHT & Co., in their weekly circular of yesterday, prepared for the Boston steamer, remark:

Receipts show some diminution from the enormous sale of the past four months, and by telegraph from New-Orleans we learn that for the week ending 30th March the net total was 35,000 bales. It may fairly be assumed from the tenor of the letters recently received, and as advised by telegraph, that we shall have but small receipts during the remainder of the season. The excess the past year amounts to 736,000 bales; this may be increased a few thousand bales for a week or two, but will suffer some diminution before the end of the season. Exports are free and fairly proportioned. To France the amount gains steadily on last year, the excess this week is raised to 137,000 bales. Great Britain gets 69,000, and other foreign ports, 16,000. The stock on hand is declining and will show a reduction every week.

Messrs. NEILL BROTHERS, in their circular, say:

"There is still a diversity of opinion on the crop question. Those who yet believe in a sudden falling off in receipts expect the crop will stop at four and a half millions, while the more general impression is that the decrease will be gradual, and the crop run beyond this figure. The course of receipts to latest telegraphic dates favors the latter view, but the question may be said to depend almost entirely on the receipts henceforward at New-Orleans. The weekly deliveries there still show an excess over last year, but at all other points a decrease. The total by telegraph, including overland cotton to eastern spinners, is now 4,137,000 bales. The average receipts of the past five years subsequent to this date, were 530,000 bales; last year, 400,900 bales; and year before, 605,000 bales."

The Hannibal and St. Joseph Road earned in the third week in March, $25,959, against $16,673 same week last season.

The report, according to the Cincinnati Gazette, for the month of January, 1860, shows an excess of $3,519 99 over the gross receipts. The February report is expected to show receipts from the 1st to the 25th day of sale, by order of the Court, $26,795; disbursements of $31,195. The receipts for the entire month last year were $22,269.

The following circular has been issued to the first and second mortgage bondholders of the La Crosse and Milwaukee Railroad:

"On the first day of December last, by agreement with S. CHAMBERLAIN, mortgagee in possession, the receipts and disbursements of the road, during the proceedings for the foreclosure of the second mortgage, were placed in my hands. At that time there were large sums, long past due, for the original purchase money of the grounds in this city occupied for dépôt, machine shops, engine houses, freight dépôts, &c., upon which several forclosure suits were pending, and others threatened—a swing bridge constructed over the canal at Portage, rolling stock then recently placed upon the road, and the pay-rolls of the operators for November, all to be provided for. The safety of the first and second mortgage bonds, as well as the proper operating of the road, made it imperative that these matters should take precedence of the Interest and Sinking Fund.

The receipts and disbursements have been as follows:

LIVE STOCK MARKETS.

WEDNESDAY EVENING, April 4, 1860.

The supply of meats, especially of beef, veal and pork, is too large for the present week, which, by the way, is the last of the Lenten season. Eggs are abundant and cheap, and shad are beginning to be taken plentifully, so that butchers may well say that there is a very small demand for coarser meats. The hotels, which are filled with traders from the country, need a fair supply of first cuts; but even after the close of Lent the masses will not purchase the coarser meats abundantly, when two pounds of eggs or two pounds of nice shad cost scarcely more than one pound of beef. For several weeks shad will be the principal animal food, and those sending live stock to the City will do well to bear this fact in mind, in estimating the probable wants of the market, and the prices to be expected. For a day or two after Lent there will be a little extra demand for beef, then shad will be bought freely for two or three weeks, and when people become tired of them, there will be a better sale for beef until the Spring trade is over, and citizens begin to depart for their usual Summer resorts....The number of live cattle brought in this week (3,813) is nearly up to the weekly average of last year, and the better weights of the animals swell the actual amount of beef rather above the average. Of course prices have been lower to-day, and the yards were scarcely cleared this evening at a decline on the closing sales of nearly 1c. ₱ lb., estimated dressed weight, from the closing rates last week....Milch cows are still a drug, though only 143 came in during the week. Dealers make every effort to dispose of them, even sending them to the country to be peddled out, but they meet with little success. There appears to be nearly cows enough in the neighborhood of the City to supply the current demand....Veal calves are coming in quite freely, though in less numbers than at this time last year. The demand is not large and prices have declined ½c. ₱ lb., live weight. The quality is rather poor, many of those of larger size are thin in flesh. Probably half of all in market this week will not average 5c. ₱ lb....Sheep have arrived rather slowly, the receipts for the week ending this morning being but 3,416. During the day, however, there have been considerable fresh arrivals, and this afternoon prices are 25c. ₱ head lower, with plenty on hand....Hogs are not very abundant, but the demand is very moderate, and prices have declined ¼c.@½c. ₱ lb., live weight.

The following figures, carefully compiled from our former reports, and from statistics gathered at all the City yards, including the cattle sold direct to butchers at Bergen, give a comparative view of the past market supplies and show the

TOTAL RECEIPTS OF LIVE STOCK AT ALL THE NEW-YORK CITY MARKETS FOR THE WEEK ENDING APRIL 3.

	Beeves.	Milch Cows.	Veals.	Sheep.	Swine.
This week	3,813	143	730	3,416	4,418

Weekly average of beeves for 1859					3,950
Weekly average of beeves for 1858					3,676
Weekly average of beeves for 1857					3,148

Total number of live animals of all kinds received during the past week at the New-York City yards, 12,520. Total number received the previous week, 15,689, being a decrease of 3,169, mostly of sheep and swine.

Of the 3,813 fresh bullocks received during this week, 3,433 were taken to the Washington Yards, Forty-fourth-street; 250 were sold at the Bergen yards, at the terminus of the Erie Railroad; 62 were yarded at BROWNING'S; 23 at O'BRIEN'S, on Sixth-street; and 45 at CHAMBERLAIN'S yards, on Robinson-street. Sales at Bergen were very light, as few cattle came that way. A smaller number than usual were also sold at the down-town markets.

Of the 3,433 bullocks yarded at Forty-fourth-street, this week, so far as we could ascertain their origin from owners and salesmen, and from the yard-books, 540 head came from Ohio, 203 from New-York, 77 from Indiana, 1,312 from Illinois, 121 from Pennsylvania, 12 from Canada, 48 from Michigan, 850 from Iowa, 27 from New-Jersey, 195 from Missouri, and 48 from Kentucky. Western cattle are in abundance; the receipts from Iowa (850) are much larger than have ever before come from that State during a single week. One-third of all in market are credited to Illinois. The better average condition of these Western cattle shows that farmers have been converting the low-priced corn into beef. New-York farmers seemed to anticipate this supply from the West, and only 200 were sent in from this State.

The 3,433 beeves yarded at Forty-fourth-street and at Bergen Hill came in by the following routes: Erie Railroad, 1,057; Hudson River Railroad, 1,717; Harlem Railroad, 27; Camden and Amboy Railroad, 468; New-Jersey Central Railroad, 174; Hudson River Boats, 240. As most of the owners wished to have the benefit of the Albany market, an unusually large proportion of the cattle came over the New-York Central and Hudson River Railroads.

THE CATTLE SALES YESTERDAY AND TO-DAY.

After the Sunday sales of some 200 cattle, the market opened tolerably brisk on Tuesday, at Forty-fourth-street, with 3,200 beeves on hand,—quite a portion of them good killing cattle, especially so for western bullocks, showing that there is corn still left in that country. It was soon evident that last week's prices could not be maintained, and a concession was allowed in weight and actual price equal to ½c. ₱ lb. At these figures a fair amount of business was done during the day, but a larger number than usual were left for to-day. Buyers came up slowly this morning, and seeing a fair show of animals, and remembering that the present week would probably be worse upon the retail trade than even the former ones had been, they appeared very indifferent as to making purchases and could only be induced to take hold by conceding from yesterday's rates. Many of the sales of to-day, taking actual weights into account, were ¾c. ₱ lb. below the prices of last week, and the closing sales were nearer 1c. lower.

Taking the average of the entire transactions of this week's market, yesterday's sales being included in those of to-day, and setting down those of last week for comparison, we have the following:

	To-day.	Last week.
Premium cattle	10c.@10½c.	10½c.@11c.
First quality	9½c.@10c.	10c. @10½c.
Medium quality	8½c.@ 8¾c.	9c. @ 9½c.
Poor quality	7½c.@ 8c.	8c. @ 8½c.
Poorest quality	6c. @ 7c.	7c. @ 7½c.
General selling prices	8c. @ 9½c.	8c. @10c.
Average of all sales	8½c.@ 8½c.	8¾c.@ 9c.

Very few animals brought over 10c., and only that figure yesterday. Nice killing steers were plenty, at 9c., and towards night very fair beeves were sold at 8c. Quite a number of the brokers, tempted with a little good luck for a fortnight past, bought up cattle at Albany at the closing rates of last week. Most of these found the balance upon the wrong side upon footing up to-night. Nor can we promise them any very flattering prospects for the future. Large numbers of still-fed cattle are ready to be pushed in at any fair opening, and if such does not soon come, they will have to be sent forward any way to make room for Summer feeding others. About 1,100 bullocks were taken East from Albany on Monday.

The following extracts from our copious notes made of transactions during the day, will give the distant reader some idea of the character of the sales:

M. DALTON bought 33 head of fair Ohio steers at Albany which would dress about 6½ cwt. They cost $55 when they reached the yards; but after retailing out they only footed up $52 50—leaving the profit upon the wrong side.

WHITE & SON were selling 97 good killing Illinois steers for H. R. SMITH. Rated 8 cwt, and were averaging strong 9c.

W. H. HARRIS, for Mr. WILLOUBY, 80 medium to good Illinois steers, of 7¾ cwt., at 7¾c.@9½c.

O. SMITH came in with 14 good heavy cattle from Chatauque County, N. Y. Home weight 26,806 lbs. gross. GEO. AYRAULT assisted in selling them at 8c.@10¼c. They were fed by WESTFIELD & RIPLEY. The best were sold yesterday, but from appearances the remainder would not make the owner whole, although among the best lots of the day. AYRAULT also sold 29 head of good steers and oxen from the same County for U. S. LA DUE; 8 of the best were taken by C. GWYRE at $105 each, or 10c.—the balance at 8c.@9c.

H. HURD was selling on his own account 40 pretty good Ohio cattle at 8c.@9½c. Rated 7½ cwt.

WOODRUFF & DUDLEY sold for J. SHAUL 72 fair Illinois steers of 6¼ cwt., at 8½c. Also, for J. M. SMITH, 31 pretty good Illinois steers of 7 cwt., at 8½c.@10c.

J. BRYANT was selling, on his own account, 14 good Ohio steers, rated 9¼ cwt., at $92 each. Also, 32 fair steers of 7½ cwt., from the same State, at 9c.@10c.

E. LOCKMAN sold 75 head of Illinois cattle for Mr. PACKER. They were a fine lot of about 8¼ cwt.—8½ cwt. in a good market—and brought 8½c.@10c. P. LOWRY took 6 of the best at $105 each, or near 10c. They were very fine heavy animals. Also 13 good heavy State oxen, of say 10 cwt., for which $98 each was refused yesterday. He would like to have the offer repeated to-day.

S. ULRY, for J. T. ALEXANDER, 93 good fair Illinois steers, of 7½ cwt., at 9c.@10c.

T. C. EASTMAN sold, on his own account, 34 State still-fed cattle of prime flesh, which would dress 7½ cwt., at 9¼c.@9½c. Also, 28 very nice 9¼ cwt. Kentucky cattle, brought in from Bourbon County by J. GORHAM. They average $90 each. Mr. EASTMAN had in addition 4 premium cattle from Ontario County, N. Y., which would dress 10 cwt. They brought $100 each, or 10c.

T. BLOOMER sold 34 Ohio cattle, which he bought at the yards. They were nice steers of 6¾ cwt., which brought him 8½c.@10c. Also, 10 fairish cows and oxen for Westchester County neighbors, at 6½c.@9½c.

J. A. MERRITT sold, for S. H. JONES, 93 roughish oxen, of about 8 cwt., at 8c.@10c.; average 9c.

On account of the burning of a bridge on the Erie Road, the cattle did not arrive until afternoon yesterday, which made a difference of $500 on the two lots, the morning sales being so much the best. The other lot was 42 Illinois steers belonging to Capt. HUTCHINSON. They were a good bunch of 8 cwt., and brought 9c.

C. T. TEED sold 50 Pennsylvania cattle, for A. KIMBALL, of Lancaster Co. They were fair 7 cwt. steers, and brought 8c.@9½c.

MILCH COWS.

These continue in excess of the requirements of City milkmen and private gentlemen, although not a large number of fresh cows have been added during the past week. Many of those in the market stables have been there for weeks, some of them even after sending into the country as many as three times to find sales for them. There is very little demand for new milch cows just now, and the prospect is not flattering for the future. We saw a prime young cow warranted to give 20 quarts of milk ₱ day, offered at $55. Very fair animals are plenty at $35 each.

VEAL CALVES.

With a diminished demand for veal during Lent, and free arrivals both at the regular markets and by boats which sell direct from the wharves, prices have fallen off about ½c. ₱ lb. The best calves are now worth 6½c. ₱ lb. live weight, and very good veals are plenty at 5½c.@6c. The general quality is not good, and apart from "bobs," more calves sell below 5c. than over 5c. Large numbers are sold by the head, buyers not being willing to weigh them. "Kittens" can be had in any quantity at $1@$1 75 each.

SHEEP AND LAMBS.

But few lambs are brought in so early in the season, most of the stock being sheep, about half of which have been shorn. The receipts have not been large during the past week—1,346 less than the previous week—but with free arrivals this morning at several of the markets, (which will be included in next week's figures;) they sell at some 25c. ₱ head less than last week. A few lots of prime wool sheep brought 7c.@7½c. ₱ lb., live weight, while sheared sheep were selling at 4½c. for ordinary, to 5c.@5½c. for good. The stock was more than sufficient for the wants of the market.

ALLERTON reports receipts of 540 sheep, selling slowly at lower prices. Very few buyers.

BROWNING gives 984 head brought in—47 State sheep by D. K. TRIPP; 800 from Ohio—564 by H. DOWNING, and 236 by GERRETT & STEWART, and 137 Pennsylvania sheep by D. LLOYD. In addition to these, 904 came in this morning, and are on sale to-day, but will enter into next week's figures. The pens are filled; business rather dull at 25c. ₱ head less than last Wednesday. Among the sales are the following:

JAS. MCCARTHY reports 176 sheep, $935 68; 181 for $801; 178 for $924 09; 32 for $200; 33 for $276 38; 66 for $561; 85 for $382 50; 80 for $360; 9 for $74 50. Total, 840 sheep, $4,515 15, or an average of $5 37 ₱ head.

R. H. HUME gives sales of 192 Sheep at $828 74; 47 at $177 50; 186 at $833; and 199 at 817 88; making a total of 624, all sheared, for $2,657 12, or an average of $4 26 ₱ head.

O'BRIEN & MCGRAW report the following receipts, all from New-York State: Ottley & Shimer, 348; E. Hunt, 49; E. Comstock, 138; G. W. Root, 177; Mr. Smith, 155; S. W. Ham, 40; J. Budd, 36; J. Van Alstyne, 58—making a total of 1,001. The following lots are reported among the sales: 158 Sheep for $653 25; 36 for $178 25; 47 for $287; 174 for $836; 243 for $1,504 60; 105 for $659 47; 184 for 1,093 12—making a total of 947 for $5,211 69, or an average of $5 50 ₱ head.

SWINE.

As Summer approaches, eaters of swine's flesh order "pork steaks" and "roasting pieces" less frequently, so that the butcher needs fewer hogs. As matter of information, all the hogs brought in at this season are killed for fresh pork and sausages, no one thinking of salting any except the few pieces which are like to be injured by keeping them fresh any longer. The receipts of live animals for the past week are 4,418, of which 1,322 were yarded at Thirty-seventh-street, and 3,096 at the Fortieth-street Yards. Several lots are on the market unsold, even at figures ¼c.@½c. ₱ lb. live weight below the prevailing rates of last week.

G. W. DORMAN, Commission Broker, at Fortieth-street yards, reports as follows:

	Live weight.	Dead weight.
Corn Hogs, Prime	6c. @6¼c.	7¾c.@8c.
Corn Hogs, Medium	5¾c.@6⅛c.	7¾c.@8⅛c.
Still-fed Hogs, fat	5⅝c.@5⅞c.	7½c.@7½c.
Mast-fed Hogs	4½c.@5c.	7c. @7¼c.

Market very slow, and more Hogs arriving than are wanted at present prices.

THE HORSE MARKET.

NEW-YORK, Wednesday, April 4, 1860.

At the beginning of the week there were 953 horses at the principal stables. The receipts within the week have been 377 head, or 67 head more than found buyers, so that at the close, the number remaining in the stables is 1,020 head....The demand has been very moderate, chiefly for low-priced stock, wanted for farming purposes, &c. The supply of this description is good, and owners are generally eager sellers....Cart horses bring $150@$200, each, when in good working condition. Roadsters have been in some request, chiefly at from $275@$350, each. The sales have been limited....Railroad companies and omnibus proprietors continue to buy very sparingly and cautiously, owing, in part, to the uncertainty of the success of the various new Railroad bills now pending in the Legislature at Albany....Carriage and saddle horses have been in less demand. The latter are not plenty. Prices have been sustained....The inquiry from shippers has been limited. A few sales have been effected at $85@$110, each, for export to the West Indies....The total sales of horses, during the week, add up only 310 head, of which there were sold by:

Chamberlin	32	J. O. Taylor	17
Post & Nichols	70	McRoberts	12
Vanhorn	19	Straws	13

We may add that of the 1,020 head remaining in the stables, unsold, many have been on hand for some time, to the serious loss, and sore disappointment of dealers. The available supply comprises a good show of Western New-York, and Pennsylvania stock.

WHOLESALE PRODUCE MARKETS.

NEW-YORK, Wednesday, April 4, 1860.

Commission Sales of Produce for the week ending April 4, 1860, prepared for THE NEW-YORK TIMES by PINNEY & JOHNSON, Produce Commission Merchants, No. 231 Fulton-street. Our quotations are such as merchants and producers realize who ship their Produce to this market to be sold on commission.

BUTTER.

The receipts of new Butter are daily increasing; the quality, however, is not good enough for buyers so long as they can buy good old Butter as low as now. Prices thus far have been very irregular, ranging from 20c. to 24c. By the first of the week, we anticipate large receipts of a better quality, when prices will probably be more uniform. The business of the week has been to work off old Butter—buyers having it entirely their own way for anything but prime dairies.

CHEESE.

With really fine Cheese, the market is not overstocked, and prices are well sustained. Some considerable quantities of Winter made of fairish quality are coming forward and selling at 9c. and 9½c.

EGGS.

The market has not been flooded, and yet the large receipts of last week, of which dealers bought largely to hold, have prevented any decided advance—prices ranging from 13½c. to 14½c. The chances in favor of a decline or advance are about equal. We quote:

State and Ohio	13½	@	14½

FRUITS.

Dried Apples continue quiet. The demand is for small lots, chiefly for home consumption. We consider it doubtful if they again advance, for the reason that stock here is large and the prices are too low in California and Australia to encourage shipments. Other Dried Fruits are also plenty and unusually low, and Turkish Prunes, which are now extensively used, are nearly 100 ₱ cent. lower than a few weeks ago, when Apples were selling at 7c. to 7½c. Green Apples are getting scarce, and choice sound fruit on the dock sells at $4 to $4 50.

PATENT OVERSTRUNG GRANDS AND SQUARE PIANOS

Are now considered the Best Pianos manufactured. Opinion of nearly all the greatest and most prominent Musicians and Artists regarding these Instruments:

The undersigned, having personally examined and practically tested the improvement in Grand Pianos, invented by H. STEINWAY, in which the covered strings are overstrung above those remaining, do hereby certify:

1. That as a result of the said improvement the voice of the Piano is greatly improved in quality, quantity and power.

2. The sound by Steinway's improvement is much more even, less harsh, stronger, and much better prolonged, than that realized in any other Piano with which we are acquainted.

3. The undersigned regard the improvement of Mr. Steinway as most novel, ingenious and important. No Piano of similar construction has ever been known or used, so far as the undersigned know or believe.

NEWS OF THE DAY.

The Rhode Island election has terminated, as was to be anticipated, in the triumph of the Democratic-Republican coalition. Mr. SPRAGUE, who was on the allied ticket for Governor, has unquestionably been chosen, by a majority not varying greatly, it is supposed, from 1,500. The Republicans have also lost both branches of the Legislature. The election was the occasion of very great excitement. Money was openly offered for voters; and our correspondent states that men of known wealth exposed their ballots to sale at prices ranging from ten to fifty dollars. No acts of violence are reported. The victory was celebrated at Providence, among the triumphant party, with a feast, and a serenade to the Governor elect.

The returns from Connecticut, now complete, assign 536 majority to the Republican Governor, and give 14 of 21 Senators to the same party. The majority of the Republicans in the House, which last year was 17, will now be 59.

The Vice-President laid before the Senate yesterday certain correspondence between the Attorney-General and the Federal Judges of Utah in reference to judicial affairs in that Territory. Resolutions of the New-Jersey Legislature favoring an exalted tariff, and the Homestead Act, were submitted by Mr. THOMPSON. Mr. GREEN subsequently called up his resolutions in reference to Mr. MEDILL, and moved their reference to the appropriate Committee. Mr. SAULSBURY spoke in opposition to the reference, stating that it was well known that the action of the Comptroller, whether right or wrong, was founded upon the advice of the Attorney-General, and to regard it in a criminal light was merely absurd. Mr. PUGH moved a postponement of the subject, as Mr. MEDILL was absent, and detained by sickness in Ohio. Mr. GREEN, however, insisted upon his motion, alleging that the Comptroller had been furnished with a copy of the resolutions prior to his departure. He was encountered by Mr. BAYARD, who argued that the Senate had nothing to do with the censure and removal of officers, and there was no foundation for the charges in the present instance. After a sharp passage between Messrs. BENJAMIN and GREEN, the subject gave way to the Homestead Bill, as the special order, Mr. PUGH advocating the bill with amendments, among which was the restriction of the right of location to married men. Mr. WIGFALL followed, opposing the measure in a speech of great length, marked with his well-known peculiarities. A resolution, offered by Mr. SUMNER, calling for copies of correspondence in the State Department relative to military service exacted from American citizens abroad, was adopted. In the House of Representatives, the Military Academy Appropriation bill was reported from the Military Committee, with a recommendation that the Senate amendment, authorising a regiment of Texan Volunteers, be concurred in. An attempt to make the bill the order of the day for Tuesday was defeated. Mr. KEITT then resumed from Tuesday his remarks against the Polygamy bill; and was followed by Mr. GOOCH, of Massachusetts, who advocated amendments, and opposed the plan of partition favored by Mr. THAYER. Mr. SIMMS, of Kentucky, was for the measure. His remarks called out Mr. HOOPER, the Utah delegate, who denied the charges brought against the Mormons. He accused Judge DRUMMOND, their most violent assailant, of having brought a courtesan with him to the Territory, and seated her beside him on the Bench. The allegation of the primitive Saints of the Territory having coined money, he explained by reference to the history of California gold discovery. At this stage, Mr. NELSON called for the previous question, which was ordered by a vote of 114 to 75. Mr. NELSON then spoke for an hour in advocacy of the bill.

Mr. FRANK SANBORN was one of the witnesses summoned by the Senate Committee of Investigation in the Harper's Ferry affair, but, recusant to the writ, he was arrested on Tuesday evening at his house in Concord, Mass., by a Deputy Sergeant-at-Arms. News of the fact speedily flew over that Revolutionary battle-ground, and it was not long before the prisoner was rescued, and steps taken to secure a writ of habeas corpus. This was issued by Judge HOAR, and, upon its return yesterday before a full Bench of the Supreme Court at Boston, SANBORN was discharged, on the ground that the warrant should have been executed by the Sergeant-at-Arms in person. The Court refused to pass upon other points suggested for the prisoner. An attempt was made to carry the excitement into the Legislature, by a motion that the Attorney-General be instructed to appear for SANBORN. It was voted down. A memorial from SANBORN was subsequently presented, setting forth the particulars of his arrest, and demanding protection. No action was had upon it.

Rev. DANIEL WORTH, whose long confinement in the jail at Greensboro', N. C., upon a charge of circulating HELPER'S Compendium, has been referred to from time to time in these columns, has been convicted of that offence, and sentenced to imprisonment for one year.

The first dispatch of the Overland Pony Express occurred on Tuesday evening from St. Joseph's. A great multitude witnessed the departure, and were addressed by several gentlemen interested in the origin of the enterprize.

The bill to abolish the New-York Almshouse Department was debated in the State Senate—Messrs. ROBERTSON and CALVIN sustaining, and Mr. SPINOLA attacking the measure. It was referred to a Select Committee to report complete. The report of the Railroad Toll Conference Committee coming up, a motion to appoint a new Committee was negatived, and the Senate decided to adhere to its bill—16 to 15. Among bills ordered to a third reading were the following: Relative to the University of New-York; to abolish property qualification clause of the Constitution; to provide for the appointment of Inspectors and Canvassers in New-York. Among the bills passed in the Assembly were those to divide the Sixth Judicial District of New-York; to provide for the enlargement of the Canals; and to abolish capital punishment. The latter measure does not, however, realize its title, as it merely confines the death-penalty to treason, and murder and arson in the first degree. The bill providing for the inspection of steam-boilers in New-York and Brooklyn was also passed. The Senate bill amending the Metropolitan Police law was reported favorably.

The Board of Education, last evening, reëlected Mr. S. S. RANDALL, City Superintendent of Schools, and Mr. HENRY KIDDLE Assistant-Superintendent, for two years from next June. The nomination of Mr. DELAMATER for School Commissioner for the Sixteenth Ward was confirmed, and he took his seat in the Board. Mr. WILLIAMS, of the Seventeenth, and Mr. MAGAN, of the Twelfth, were confirmed as School Trustees in their several Wards. A report was received from the Committee on Supplies, showing that the cost for supplying each pupil with books and stationery during 1859, was $1 16. The aggregate amount expended for supplies was $60,066 85—a decrease of $24,141 23, as compared with the expense during 1858. The Finance Committee reported a balance on hand, on account of special appropriations, of $90,295 04. After voting to render new school-building No. 14 more secure, the Board adjourned.

The only case of importance disposed of in the Court of General Sessions yesterday, was one of an aggravated assault on a child. The jury convicted the accused of an attempt to commit the assault, and he was sent to the State Prison by Recorder BARNARD for five years. EGBERT DEMING, who has heretofore figured somewhat extensively in connection with several corporations, originating with himself, for the ostensible purpose of "converting slate-stone into marble," was yesterday arrested on twenty-six charges of perjury, alleged to have been committed in making affidavits for the purpose of breaking up the New-York Marble Company. He was held to bail by Recorder BARNARD, in the sum of $3,000, to answer. The District-Attorney having left town for Albany, it is not probable that any trial will take place in the Court of Oyer and Terminer during this week.

Rev. Dr. ADAMS, of the Madison-square Presbyterian Church, delivered a lecture at the Presbyterian Church in Sixth-street, upon the subject of labor in its relation to character.

The Stock Market continued active yesterday. Prices were higher for State Securities and Railway Bonds, and the demand strong for nearly all these and most of the Western Shares, while in New-York Central and Pacific Mail there was something of a pause at the close. Nothing new in Exchange or Discount rates.

Flour was in more demand, as was likewise Corn, at somewhat firmer prices. Other kinds of Grain, with Cotton, Coffee, Hops, Tallow, Provisions, and the principal descriptions of Oil, were moderately inquired for. Hay, Rice, Whisky, Sugars, Molasses and Spirits Turpentine attracted considerable attention. Freights were quiet, with 432 vessels of all classes in port.

The Live Stock markets have been rather over-supplied this week. This is the last week of Lent, and the demand for meat is yet small, especially as eggs are so abundant and cheap, and fresh Shad are beginning to be taken plentifully. For the week ending yesterday, the receipts of live animals at the various City markets numbered: beef cattle, 3,813; milch cows, 143; veal calves, 730; sheep, 3,416; swine, 4,418—making a total of 12,520. At yesterday's general weekly markets, beef cattle declined ½c.@¾c. ℔ lb., dressed weight, and it was with difficulty that all the animals were sold. Very fair killing steers were sold in the afternoon at 8c. ℔ lb., or 2c. ℔ lb. lower than one year ago.... Milch cows are a drug in market, and cannot all be sold at anything like fair prices.... Veal calves are also in excess of the demand, and ½c. ℔ lb. lower. Very many of them are in poor order.... Sheep are in fair supply, but lower than last week.... Hogs are quite plenty, and ½c. ℔ lb., live weight, lower than last week. There is a surplus on hand.

Census of 1860—Population—Effect on the Representation of the Free and Slave States.

Such has been the uniform growth of the United States for seventy years past, that the aggregate result of the census of 1860, in regard to population, is no mystery. We know almost exactly what the aggregate is to be—and for a majority of the States, we know almost the precise results. In the general and particular estimates, there are, however, two variables. These are, first, the amount of foreign immigration and its distribution; and, secondly, the amount and distribution of domestic migrations. But, to correct these, we have some very accurate data. We have, for example, the whole amount of immigration from Europe in the last ten years; next, we have the average rate of mortality, showing how many of these are now alive; and, although we do not know the precise amount of domestic migration, we know certain general facts: that the great current of migration is to the West, and chiefly to the Northwest. In addition to all these general data, some of the States took semi-decennial censuses in 1855. The States of Massachusetts, New-York, Georgia, Florida, Alabama, Louisiana, Illinois, Iowa and Wisconsin, took the census in 1855, and Arkansas in 1854. In these States, situated in different parts of the Union, an almost exact estimate can be made, and they indicate very clearly the degree of growth in their respective sections. In some of the States also, the number of slaves is given for taxation. A calculation based on these facts for each particular State, gives an aggregate a little larger than what the general ratio of growth would give. Is that likely to be true? We think it is, for this reason. Between 1850 and 1860 there arrived in the United States one million of foreign immigrants more than had arrived between 1840 and 1850. Deducting from these the proper ratio of deaths, and there would remain of these at least seven hundred thousand in 1860. This is to be added to the aggregate obtained by applying the ratio of antecedent growth. Taking these facts and principles as the basis of calculation, we have the following result for each State of the Union:

States.	Free People.	Slaves.	Aggregate.
Alabama	500,000	420,000	920,000
Arkansas	205,000	75,000	280,000
California	300,000	—	300,000

Pennsylvania	2,900,000	—	2,900,000
Rhode Island	180,000	—	180,000
South Carolina	300,000	420,000	720,000
Tennessee	950,000	300,000	1,250,000
Texas	510,000	210,000	720,000
Vermont	330,000	—	330,000
Virginia	1,130,000	520,000	1,650,000
Wisconsin	700,000	—	700,000
Oregon	60,000	—	60,000
New-Mexico	80,000	—	80,000
Kansas	120,000	—	120,000
Nebraska	50,000	—	50,000
Washington	30,000	—	30,000
Utah	50 000	—	50,000
Dahcota	6,000	—	6,000
Dist. of Columbia	50,000	2,000	52,000
Aggregate	27,666,500	3,909,500	31,516,000

In the column of free population is included the free colored population, which will amount to about 500,000. In the new Slave States, such as Alabama, Mississippi, Louisiana, Texas, and Arkansas, there may be a few more slaves than are above represented. Taken in all, the aggregate of slaves will be about 4,000,000. The census of 1860 will approximate, in regard to races, very nearly this proportion:

Free white population	27,000,000
Colored slave population	4,000,000
Colored free population	500,000
Total	31,500,000

If we compare this with the other Censuses since 1790, we shall observe one great and important fact bearing on the domestic and political questions of the country, viz.; that the white population increases much faster than the colored. Indeed, this fact is so palpable that the tables show an increase of 37 per cent. in white population, and only 26 in the colored. At first sight this might be supposed to be wholly the effect of foreign immigration. But this is not so. There is a perceptible difference in the growth of the races, independent of all foreign additions. We shall not here comment on that fact, but proceed to look at the representative population. This is composed of the free people, and three-fifths of the slaves. The representative population of the several States will be as follows:

Alabama	752,000	Mississippi	630,000
Arkansas	250,000	Missouri	964,000
California	300,000	New-Hampshire	350,000
Connecticut	410,000	New-Jersey	600,000
Delaware	97,500	New-York	3,750,000
Florida	110,800	North Carolina	820,000
Georgia	832,000	Ohio	2,500,000
Illinois	1,750,000	Pennsylvania	2,900,000
Indiana	1,500,000	Rhode Island	180,000
Iowa	700,000	South Carolina	552,000
Kentucky	904,000	Tennessee	1,130,000
Louisiana	530,000	Texas	642 000
Maine	700,000	Virginia	1,442,000
Maryland	614,000	Wisconsin	700,000
Massachusetts	1,260,000	Oregon	60,000
Michigan	800,000	Vermont	330,000
Minnesota	300,000

To ascertain the bearing of these results, on the House of Representatives, and the Electoral Colleges,—we must refer to the Census act of 1850. By that act the House of Representatives must consist of 233 members. The whole representative population must be divided by this number, which determines the ratio for each State. If, when applied to each State, the number of representatives does not equal 233, then one additional representative is to be given to each State having the largest fractions, till the aggregate is obtained. Applying this rule to the above representative population (assuming the estimate to be correct,) the general ratio for representatives obtained is 124,000. Applying this to the several States, and obtaining the deficiency by taking the largest fractions, we have the following results, both for the aggregate, and for the loss, and gain in the several States in Representatives:

States.	No. of Rep's.	Gain.	Loss.
Alabama	6	—	1
Arkansas	2	—	—
California	2	—	—

This table presents some remarkable facts, viz:

1. All the old and large States of the Union, without exception, lose ground relatively, and most of them positively.

2. The South loses ground largely; the new State of Texas, having five-fold the territory of the old States, and lying west of the Mississippi, is the only one that gains.

3. The only part of the Union which positively gains is the Northwest—Missouri being properly included in that.

4. The Northwest positively gains 15 Representatives and 2 Senators in Minnesota.

5. The Slave States lose 11 Representatives and gain 4—being a positive loss of 7. The Free-States gain 14 and lose 10—being a positive gain of 4, with 4 Senators in Minnesota and Oregon. The admission of Kansas and Nebraska, which will speedily happen, will add 2 Representatives and 4 Senators to the same side.

"Westward the star of empire takes its way" is no longer poetry, but the most sober of fact—and not only westward, but northwestward, is the course of empire.

The inferences from these tables we may hereafter notice, since they are of great importance in relation to the races which inhabit this country and in regard to its future politics.

Bos Locutus Est.

It was a dark day for ancient Rome when the bullock spoke in the Forum. We hope that no harm may be imminent over modern Rhode Island, but a like phenomenon has just occurred in her capital.

The bullock in this case, however, is merely a biped, and opens his mouth not so much for the good of the State as to secure his own election to the office of Lieutenant-Governor, and the general triumph of Democratic principles. Mr. J. RUSSELL BULLOCK, we suppose, represents the average intelligence of his own party in his own State. This being the case, it is worth while to listen to Mr. BULLOCK'S more or less articulate utterance. Mr. BULLOCK, it is understood, went into the recent canvass on the strength of his well-matured beliefs rather than of his oratorical graces. One of his "beliefs," then, is that the only object of the "Republican Party is to extend the sale of HELPER'S book." Another of his "beliefs" is that "whatever Mr. SEWARD says, is law to the Republicans." Another of his "beliefs" is that if we will only maintain Slavery in America side by side with Freedom, we can flourish amain and rival the greatness of Portugal and Spain! Indignant at the notion that Slavery and Freedom cannot coexist, Mr. BULLOCK gives vent to this crushing argument from facts: "Is not Spain in existence, and has she not the two within her borders? Is not Portugal a living nation, and is not the same case true with her?"

Nevertheless, Mr. BULLOCK is "personally opposed to Slavery," and "wants to see the day when the sun of Freedom shall gild every hill-top and shine benignly on every field." Inconsistent BULLOCK! Who will assure us, in the case of your living to look upon this auspicious day, against defeat in our noble rivalry for national honors with the Lusitanian and the Iberian monarchies?

Such are the beliefs of BULLOCK. These, with the important information that "Rhode Island is a small State, bounded by three big ones, which might easily eat her up," in case BULLOCK'S party should be defeated, constitute the staple of his oration. We suppose they really represent the beliefs and the information of Mr. BULLOCK'S party; and the result shows that BULLOCK has not broken silence in vain. Rhode Island has been favored with a portent in time, and has made the best of her way in a direction opposite to that taken by her sister State of Connecticut. She did not even stop to reflect that the mother of all Blue-laws is one of the "three" ogres whom BULLOCK has represented as lying in wait to devour and digest her spirited little self, with no more compunction than if she were one of her own unapproachable turkeys.

Spring and Song.

The Spring has evidently set in, and happily with less than its usual severity. In ordinary times a New-York April is only to be described by the popular Italian verse which paints the peculiarities of the town of Tivoli:

> "O Tivoli di mal conforte!
> O piove, o tira vento,
> O suona, o morte!"

Rains and winds and tolling funerals make up the merry staple of the days, while the few gleams of sunshine and clear weather which relieve the dismal panorama are consumed by the unburied portion of the population in running madly about from street to street in search of "Houses to let," against the coming of that fearful judgment-season, the inevitable first of May.

The present year has dealt with us more mercifully than usual, perhaps because it is a leap year, and as such consecrated to the ladies. But thus far it has certainly meted us a less liberal measure than we had reason to expect of April annoyances. It has not rained above twice a day since the month began; the last winds of March swept the streets so thoroughly that there is scarce a peck of dust left undevoured in the metropolis; and though we have had a casual gust or too since Saturday, the complacent disposition of the skies has seduced our cautious neighbors of the Tribune into once more erecting their Ebenezer on the summit of their building. This is not merely the most cheerful, but also the most imposing sign of the season. What sort of a generation it is which habitually asks for a sign, we know on the best authority; and we can only commend the charitable liberality of the Tribune, which is giving them a sign at least one-third as high as the whole edifice which supports it. The said edifice, be it observed, however, is helped by its sign as LOUIS XIV. was by his peruke. Without his peruke, the King was only a little wizened old fellow. Surmounted by that gorgeous triumph of the tonsorial art, he became, indeed, Le Grand Monarque.

We welcome the return of the Tribune's top-knot, therefore, with unfeigned satisfaction, and trust it may prove no uncertain harbinger of good weather. The matter is of public interest; for as the gigantic construction in question, when it last fell a victim to the fury of the winds, was blown inwards upon the roof, it is only rational to anticipate that the next catastrophe must carry it outwards into the street. In which case let Tammany, proximus Ucalegon, beware! But we will neither borrow trouble for ourselves nor lend it to others. We are destined to enjoy an exceptional and enviable April, and Easter must open upon New-York on Monday, next we are sure with smiles, for it will open with song.

Scandinavian sailors whistle for a gale. Surely then the united voices of some fifty odd Italian opera singers, bursting at once into lyric rapture, ought to chain the sunshine to Gotham and give us weather of the true Neapolitan strain. We say the fifty odd are to sing at once. This is strictly true; but they are not to sing together. The Opera comes back to us as the Speaker of the Commons came to WILLIAM PITT after dinner; not one Opera, but two Operas. The eternal duality here again reappears: Darkness contending with Light; ORMUZD with AHRIMAN; Athens with Sparta; Rome with Carthage; England with France; North with South; DAY with GOODYEAR; MARETZEK with ULLMAN. There is a lady in one of Mr. DICKENS' novels, who declares that she "likes her tea cold." MARETZEK likes his opera hot. In tranquil times he disappears—goes to Havana, Mexico, Rio, all sorts of insignificant places. When the day of the drama is darkened, and the future is vague, MARETZEK rushes back, rejoicing like a Celt at Donnybrook Fair. Now he claims the Opera in America as his by "patent." If it be an "established institution," says MARETZEK, "it is the subscriber who has helped to make it so." True, O, MARETZEK; this hast thou done! and New-York rejoices to see that thou wilt not suffer all the pleasant chestnuts to be eaten by thy rivals! Not that MARETZEK admits any rivals by name as such. With a haughty sarcasm, the immortal impresario alludes to the people of the Academy only as "those who describe themselves as Opera managers." Yet they are the "people of the Academy;" but this, their strength, MARETZEK means shall prove their weakness. Messrs. ULLMAN & STRAKOSCH possess the Academy, a voice or two, and—præterea nihil. They enter the campaign with our own pretty PATTI, who has not yet made up her mind, it would appear, to desert us, and who is announced by the management as likely "to sing until her departure"—a consummation which strikes us as equally probable and desirable Let PATTI wait, by all means, till after the Prince of Wales' visit, and then more than return the politeness of Great Britain by carrying our card to London. BRIGNOLI, AMODIO and the rest will support her, at least for a time, till their engagement at New-Orleans shall take effect. Against this noble little army of the Academy, MARETZEK, having counted the cost, advances from his splendid camp at the Winter Garden with a threatening host. Four prime donne, more formidable than all the King of Dahomey's Amazons, lead his line. Madame INEZ FABBRI, who brings us all the combined charms of novelty, a brilliant reputation and a published horror of "preliminary puffing;" Miss WISSLER, a new American lady-singer, who asks only a "fair field and no favor;" Madame GASSIER, who will fill the place of BOSIO for us before she goes in June to fill it for the West End of London; and Madame FREZZOLINI, diademed with the admiration of all Europe, from Paris to St. Petersburgh. Then we have a new tenor—really a new tenor. For some time we supposed the name of this new tenor to be either "What is it?" or "Trefelio;" since we could not otherwise account for the frequency with which these mystic words appeared on our City walls; and we rather leaned towards "Trefelio," which we found constantly described as the "secret of beauty." But it now appears that ERRANI is the fortunate being in question; and we can only hope that he will not be smothered in billets-doux before Monday night. We need not conjure this fate from his colleage VOLPONI, who is put down as a tenore robusto, and ought therefore to be strong enough to bear the common fate of tenors without calling on the bold baritone GASSIER for help. With this array, MARETZEK raises his banner over his fortress; and that fortress the most delightful of theatres. The "Winter Garden" suffers a Spring-change. All its bosky dells and aromatic arbors will now become vocal with the sweet voices Veris et Favoni; while its boxes and orchestra stalls will doubtless blossom as the rose.

Truly, the Spring-time of year is not only coming, but come; and those of us who have strong constitutions, thick-soled shoes, or a large credit with the livery stables, may safely anticipate at least a month of enchanting entertainment in the harmonious battle-royal of MARETZEK with ULLMAN.

Progress of Journalism—The New-York Newspapers.

We understand that a project is on foot, which will go into effect next week, for supplying the country with New-York newspapers still more promptly and generally than hitherto. Mr. SHEARS, who has for some time past had the contract for transporting newspapers and periodicals over the Hudson River Road, has made an arrangement to run a special Newspaper Express, leaving New-York at 4 o'clock in the morning, and reaching Albany in time for the first morning train for Buffalo at 8½ o'clock. A locomotive and baggage-car only will be run to Poughkeepsie, and will not stop this side of that place, except for wood and water. At that point the engine will be changed, and a single passenger-car will be attached. The whole train, however, will be run by Mr. SHEARS, and at his own expense, for the express purpose of supplying the North and West with New-York papers from three to ten hours in advance of the time they are now received.

By this arrangement, subscribers at Albany and Troy will find the TIMES and other New-York morning journals upon their breakfast-tables: they will reach Syracuse by noon, and Buffalo by tea-time. Mr. SHEARS intends, we understand, to supply the papers to news-agents at the various points, at the lowest possible price, though the extra expense incurred will compel some slight addition to the rates now charged for transportation. Unless his charges are extravagant, the enterprise cannot fail largely to promote the circulation of New-York papers in the towns and cities of the interior.

The News agents in some of the interior towns look upon the project with distrust, and complain of the Hudson River Road for thus establishing a monopoly which they fear will prove oppressive, and which by exacting exorbitant rates for freight, will so far diminish their profits as seriously to injure their business. It is perfectly natural that they should anticipate such a result, for the tendency of every monopoly is to high charges and other impositions. As Mr. SHEARS runs this train at his own expense and under his own control, he will have the entire control of the business. But he cannot enforce any rate of charges he may see fit, because he would thus incur the active hostility not only of the agents who depend upon him for their supplies, but of the journals and other periodicals in which he deals, and they would soon find means to relieve themselves of an oppressive and injurious monopoly. The only way in which he can make this bold enterprise successful is by extending its advantages to news agents as well as news readers and all others concerned. He must keep his prices so low, that the increase of their business will make it the interest of agents to support him in the undertaking. If he does this, he will succeed; if not, he will inevitably fail.

We presume Mr. SHEARS will establish a tariff of charges for each point upon the route, and publish it for the information of all concerned. If it is moderate and liberal, we think the news agents in the interior will do well to waive their objections to the apparent hardship of the principle, and await the practical operation of the enterprise. If they take hold of it zealously, it is not at all unlikely that they will find it will so increase their business as largely to augment their profits. Like all innovations, it will for a time disturb somewhat the ordinary operations of trade; but if it is liberally managed, and carried into effect with due regard to the general interest, it cannot fail, like all marked improvements, to contribute in the end largely to the general welfare. It certainly threatens to interfere disastrously with the business of other establishments in this City engaged in forwarding periodicals to the country, for it cuts them off entirely from their ordinary means of transportation. We presume, however, that their characteristic enterprise will enable them to meet the difficulty in some way or other.

We have received letters from country agents remonstrating against the project, on the ground that it will subject them to extortionate charges for transportation, and urging us not to countenance or aid it in any way. All we have to do with it is simply to sell to Mr. SHEARS, at our ordinary rates and upon precisely such terms as we would sell to anybody else, whatever numbers of the TIMES he may order and pay for. What he may do with them, or upon what trains he may send them to the interior, is his affair, not ours,—unless, indeed, he should demand such increased prices for them at retail as should diminish the number sold. But his interest, like ours, lies clearly in increasing the sale;—and as a general thing a man may be relied on to consult his own interest in a matter of this kind. We shall await further developments of the enterprise, therefore, and watch its practical operation. We have no wish to countenance any movement which may affect injuriously the thousands of News Agents throughout the country, and trust that Mr. SHEARS has too just an appreciation of his own interest to make any such attempt.

DESPONDENT AND DISMAL.—The Savannah Republican does not like the working of our institutions. It is particularly displeased with the embarrassments which the existence of a Congress often throws in the way of the Executive,—and thinks that more confidence in the President is highly desirable. If he is unfit to be allowed to act upon his own discretion, "he should never have been placed where he is." This may be very true; but how could the people know how little discretion Mr. BUCHANAN would exhibit before they put him in office? The Republican adds:

> "Upon the whole, we are inclined to regard Congress as a nuisance, and especially its representative or popular branch. If we had only a Senate as a legislating and consulting branch of the Government, we religiously believe that we should get on far better, and assume a vastly higher position among the nations of the earth. This may not be good Democracy, but we contend that it is good sense."

It certainly is not very "good Democracy," and we doubt whether it will generally be accepted as very good sense. Everybody probably would concede that the best form of government in the world would be that of a single man—provided only he were certain to be the wisest, ablest, least selfish and most patriotic man living. A despotism is the simplest form of government, and has certain advantages over any other. It must necessarily be more vigorous, can act with more energy, can conceal its purposes and plans more effectually, and in various ways can do more than any other for the promotion of the public welfare. While the autocrat is a perfectly just and wise man, therefore, it may work very well. But governments must be framed to meet the contingency of having bad men in power. The chances are ten to one that an autocrat will consult his own interests and passions much more than the welfare of the people,—and it becomes necessary, therefore, to surround the Executive office with checks and safeguards. It is much better to submit to the inconvenience of occasional inaction than to run the risks of uncurbed authority. Our Government has been framed upon this principle: jealousy of Executive power is the sentiment that lies at its foundation. In some cases this may possibly be carried too far,—but experience shows that it is the safe side on which to err.

OUR MAYOR AND THE CONNECTICUT ELECTION.—The Herald and Daily News think the Democratic defeat in Connecticut is due to the absence of the Tammany Hall leaders from the stump; that if JOHN VAN BUREN and JOHN A. DIX and others of that section of the party had followed the example of Mr. WOOD, a different result would have been brought about. This theory of the disaster is, however, open to great doubt. In the first place, the character of the Tammany Hall faction is, according to the Herald and Mr. WOOD'S organ both, so irretrievably bad, and so very notorious, that the notion of their being able to influence the people of Connecticut is ridiculous on the face of it. Viewed from the Mozart Hall point of view, their mere presence is positively baleful, and their advent in the Nutmeg State would have been sufficient to drive vast numbers of good Democrats into the arms of the Republicans.

In the next place, the testimony of the Republicans as to the service rendered them by Mr. WOOD is unanimous, or nearly so. All the organs of the party agree in stating that none of their own speakers did so much to insure their triumph as our excellent and itinerant Mayor. General regrets are expressed by them that owing to his inability to be in two places at once, they were unable to secure his services for the canvass in Rhode Island. A large number of the more doubtful and wavering members of the party are said to have been confirmed in their faith by the charms of his eloquence.

Under these circumstances, it is but fair to presume that if "Confidence CASSIDY, CAGGER & Co." had also gone to the rescue, the majority for BUCKINGHAM would in all probability have been doubled. If Mr. WOOD continues to neglect the business of the Mayoralty, for the purpose of further stumping Northern States, he will expose himself to grave suspicions of treachery.

PECULATION ABROAD AND AT HOME.—The Albany Evening Journal, in publishing the following extract from a foreign letter, remarks that it shows that peculation on the part of public officers "is not confined to this Democratic country, but flourishes equally under the despotic Government of the Hapsburgs:"

> "We saw in the earlier years of the present Emperor's reign, Prof. ENDLICHER, one of the most influential men at Vienna, closely connected with the Ultramontanists, poisoning himself, and the Chief of the Postal Department, Privy Councilor VON NELL, shooting himself, both having embezzled public money; but now we hear at the same time of the suicide by hanging of Lieut. Gen. EYNATTEN, his son, an officer of the army, having previously absconded; of the suicide by poison of Mr. NOE VON NORDBERG, Chief of the Police; of the arrest of Mr. RICHTER, chief manager of the Crédit Mobilier, with a salary of $20,000, and of Messrs. BRAMBILLA and PRZUGIO, belonging to the leading merchants of Trieste—all of them involved in frauds upon the Treasury."

The Journal's remark is quite true. Public officials steal under a despotism as well as in a Democracy. Human nature is the same there as here. But there is one point of difference. Their scoundrels commit suicide when they are detected: ours never do. If all these defaulters who have poisoned, shot or hung themselves in Austria had lived in the United States, their valuable lives would have been spared. They would still have remained ornaments of the circle in which they moved. What is the reason of this remarkable difference? What is there in our climate so much more favorable to the longevity of public plunderers, than in the atmosphere of despotic Austria? Can the Journal explain the singular fact?

MORE NONSENSE.—Mr. THADDEUS HYATT has offered $300, it is said, in prizes for essays on the powers of Congress to compel persons to testify before Committees of Inquiry. We are sorry, if this be true, to find that Mr. HYATT is about to add the folly of wasting his money to the folly of a fruitless martyrdom. Prize essays rarely contain anything either new or very striking, and, in this instance, they would be more than ordinarily worthless. The powers of Congress in the matter of summoning witnesses, as well as in every other matter, can only be ascertained in one way, and that is by judicial decisions; and this right which he contests has never come before the Courts either in this country or in England without being solemnly confirmed. He might just as well offer a prize for the best essay on the right of the Supreme Court of this State to issue a writ of habeas corpus. If he wishes to secure that most valuable of possessions—a fair reputation for common sense—he will make a clean breast of it to the Committee, and return peacefully to the bosom of his family.

ANOTHER THEATRICAL WAR.—The vernacular stage has no monopoly of managerial troubles. Hardly have the last rumors of the great Octoroon war begun to die away upon the ear, when we are startled with the preliminary thunder-peals of the rival Opera-houses, presaging a duel more stupendous than the strife of HANDEL with BONONCINI, between the unconquerable ULLMAN and the magnificent MARETZEK. And, at the same moment, the French theatre in Broadway explodes like a bomb, hurling manager, actors, subscribers, all into the air in fierce and unfraternal confusion. What the merits of this latest case of chaos in the coulisses may be, we do not pretend to know; but we have received the following letter from the actors of the theatre; and infer from it that some effort has been made to induce M. MANNSTEIN to surrender the management, although the artists urgently desire that they may continue to be ruled by their accomplished "colleague." We leave the matter to the parties in interest, saying only to all and each, "Pax Vobiscum!"

To the Subscribers and Visitors of the French Theatre:

Nous soussignés, artistes et employés du Théâtre Français, reconnaissons et constatons que, pour la première fois, le Théâtre Français a été dirigé régulièrement et avec succès, grâce à l'intelligence et à l'activité de M. MANNSTEIN.

Messieurs, les souscripteurs, patrons, enfin tous les personnes, qui l'intéressent à l'avenir du Théâtre Français sont donc priés de se joindre à nous pour protester contre la demission de M. MANNSTEIN, et decider notre camarade et ami à rester avec nous comme administrateur ou comme Directeur.

Signés: Bertrand, Callot, Edgard Bary, Alphonse, Gaillant, Perrier; Mmes. Adolphe, Karsch, Pauline Dupont, Tallot, Inès; MM. T. François, Lagrange, Leon, Gaston, Gonverneur, Charles Robert, Ernest Raoul.

THE CALIFORNIA TELEGRAPHIC TARIFF.—We are informed that a mistake has been made by the telegraphic operators in stating the tariff on messages to California by the overland express from St. Joseph. The rate for ten words was correctly given, but that for each additional word is thirty instead of twenty cents.

THE HARPER'S FERRY AFFAIR.

STATEMENT OF MR. SANBORN.

BOSTON, Wednesday, April 4.

F. B. SANBORN was arrested at Concord by United States officers last night, under a requisition from the Senate Committee. WATSON FREEMAN, Jr., Deputy United States Marshal, and SILAS CARLETON, Deputy Sergeant-at-Arms of the United States Senate, called at SANBORN's residence at 9 o'clock last night. SANBORN refused to accompany them, when he was handcuffed and taken to a carriage at the door, during which he struggled violently, and the members of his family cried murder, fire, &c. The excitement spread and the town bells were rung, collecting a large crowd. RUFUS HOSMER, a citizen, died suddenly, it is supposed from the excitement the affair occasioned him. SANBORN was forcibly taken from the officers by the crowd and kept out of their power until a writ of habeas corpus could be obtained. Judge HOAR, of the Supreme Court, having been applied to, issued a writ of habeas corpus, Deputy-Sheriff JOHN B. MOORE served the writ and arrested SANBORN, which ended the mission of the United States Marshal's posse for the time being. The following is the writ of habeas corpus:

Commonwealth of Massachusetts. To the Sheriffs of our Counties, &c.:

WE COMMAND YOU, that the body of FRANK B. SANBORN, of Concord, in the County of Middlesex, by SILAS CARLETON imprisoned and restrained of his liberty, as it is said, you take and have before a Justice of our Supreme Judicial Court at Boston, in the County of Suffolk, immediately after the receipt of this writ, to do and receive what our said Justice shall then and there consider concerning him in this behalf, and summon the said SILAS CARLETON then and there to appear before our said Justice, to show the cause of the taking and detaining of the said FRANK B. SANBORN; and have you then this writ, with the doings thereon.

Dated April 3, 1850, and signed by Ebenezer Rockwood Hoar, Associate Justice of the Supreme Judicial Court.

John Keyes, John A. Andrews, and Samuel E. Sewell, are counsel for Sanborn, and the United States District-Attorney and C. L. Woodbury and Melton Andrews for the United States.

The hearing was at Boston, before the full Bench, consisting of Judges Shaw, Metcalf, Biglow, Merrick and Hoar.

Mr. SANBORN's counsel presented the following points:

First—That the Sergeant-at-Arms of the Senate of the United States has no power out of the District of Columbia, which is exclusively under the jurisdiction of Congress.

Second—That the precept for arrest being directed to the Sergeant-at-Arms by name, he alone can serve it.

Third—That the Sergeant-at-Arms cannot deputize his power to others out of the District of Columbia.

After hearing the arguments of the counsel, Chief Justice SHAW briefly reviewed the circumstances of the case, stating that it presented no conflict of authority between the Executive of the United States and the executive officers of this Commonwealth. As to the first point taken, the Court were not prepared to say that the Senate could not have its precepts served outside of the District of Columbia. On the third point, that the Sergeant-at-Arms could not depute his authority to another person, there was no doubt, and all the Court were agreed that he had no such authority. A warrant of this sort must be limited to the person to whom it is given by the Senate. The order of the Court was that SANBORN be discharged.

The rendition of the decision called forth demonstrations of applause, which were speedily checked. The Court-room was thronged.

SANBORN left with his friends for home.

The subject of the arrest of SANBORN was introduced before the Legislature in the form of resolutions to employ the State Attorney-General for the defence.

The resolutions were briefly debated, and laid on the table.

The House, by a unanimous suspension of the rules, received the following memorial, which was read:

"The memorial of T. B. SANBORN, of Concord, a free white citizen of this Commonwealth, respectively showeth that, about the hour of nine o'clock, on the night of April 3, your memorialist was forcibly seized and handcuffed, in his own house in Concord, by a body of men who refused to give their names, or read their warrant—if any they had—but dragged your memorialist into the street, and attempted to force him into a carriage, evidently for the purpose of carrying him out of the said Concord; none of the men aforesaid being citizens of Concord, as far as your memorialist can learn; but he believes them to be residents of Boston; their names as finally given by themselves some time after the events just related being SILAS CARLTON, COOLIDGE TARLTON, FREEMAN and FOSS. Furthermore, your memorialist would represent that a writ of habeas corpus being served on the said CARLTON by Deputy Sheriff MOORE, of Concord, in your county of Middlesex, said writ being granted by, and bearing the signature of Hon. E. R. HOAR, one of the Commonwealth's Justices of the Supreme Court, the said CARLTON did neglect and refuse to give up the body of your remonstrant, or remove his handcuffs, but your memorialist was taken forcibly by your Sheriff from the custody of said CARLTON and his companions, though the aforesaid writ of habeas corpus called for the body of your memorialist, and was duly served by the proper officer; all of which he conceives to be a grievous violation of his rights as a citizen of this Commonwealth; and, therefore, he prays for such relief from your honorable body as his safety and your own dignity may require.

T. B. SANBORN.

BOSTON, April 4, 1860."

After reading the above memorial, a resolution to instruct the Attorney-General of the State to act as counsel for Mr. SANBORN was taken from the table, 142 to 79, and debated at length. The resolution was passed at the third reading, and was then tabled.

The result in the Court being known, TARLTON and other officers, engaged in SANBORN's seizure, were arrested on warrants from the Police Justice of Concord, and released on personal recognizance to appear there on Friday for hearing. Mr. SANBORN made the following additional statement in regard to the arrest:

"I at first offered no resistance, but when the handcuffs were put on I refused to go, not having heard any warrant or seen any signatures, or been told the names of the officers or the nature of my offence, so far as I can recollect. When they dragged me into the open air without allowing me to put on my boots, overcoat or hat, I called murder, and resisted with my feet as well as I could, with four stout men holding me. They dragged me to the carriage, which had been brought up by a fifth or sixth confederate, and attempted to put me in. I broke the side of the carriage with my feet, and my sister seizing one of the ruffians they dropped me on my feet again. Again they tried to put me in, but my sister whipped the horses, which started and foiled them again. They were still struggling with me and her, five men against a man and a woman, when the neighbors came running to my aid. The ruffians still attempted to kidnap me, but they soon found they were overpowered; then, and not until then, did they read their warrant in the street, by the light of a lantern, while I stood handcuffed and half clothed in their hands. This must have been fifteen minutes after my first seizure.

STATEMENT OF MR. SANBORN.

The following address to the people of Massachusetts appears in the Boston Journal of last evening:

CONCORD, Mass., April 3, 1860,
12 o'clock at night.

To the Citizens of Massachusetts:

I have to inform you that a cowardly assault was committed on me this evening, at about 9 o'clock, in my own house, by four or five persons claiming to have authority to arrest me. The facts are these:

I came in from a call about 9 o'clock, and was sitting in my slippers at my desk, when a knocking called me to the door. I went down stairs, opened the door, when a small man entered and said, "Does Mr. SANBORN live here?" "That is my name, Sir," said I, putting out my hand to welcome him. "Here is a paper for you," said he, handing me a folded one, which I took.

At that moment, a gray-haired, tall and stout man entered the open door, and said, "I arrest you, Mr. SANBORN." "By what authority," said I, "and what is your name?" He gave no name, but said, "I am from the United States Marshal's office," or something of that sort. "What is your authority—your warrant?" repeated I. "We have a warrant," said some one, for by this time two more men appeared. "Show it—read it," said I. A small man, calling himself FREEMAN, (afterwards,) for none would give their names, began to read a paper, but had got only through a few lines, when the gray-haired ruffian took a pair of handcuffs from his pocket, and proceeded to put them on my wrists, I standing in my own house, without a hat or boots, only in slippers of cloth.

A whistle was given; some men rushed in, none of them known to me, and carried me by force to the street, where stood a carriage with two horses. They lifted me from the ground, and tried to put me in the carriage. I resisted with my feet, for my hands were fast in the manacles. They tried two or three times without success, breaking the carriage, but the horses started and they could not get me in. In the meantime, my cries and those of my sister had called my neighbors from their homes, who surrounded the ruffians and prevented them from carrying me off.

I stood in the street in my slippers half an hour, wearing the handcuffs, until Deputy-Sheriff MOORE took me by force from the ruffians' hands under a writ of habeas corpus, issued by Judge HOAR. Their names, given after a long time and reluctantly, were SILAS CARLTON, —— COOLIDGE, —— TARLETON and —— FREEMAN. There were two or three others whose names I have not learned.

Fifteen minutes after I was handcuffed, standing in the street, FREEMAN read me a warrant, signed by Vice-President BRECKINRIDGE, for my arrest, with an indorsement from MCNAIR, Sergeant-at-Arms of the U. S. Senate, authorizing SILAS CARLTON to seize me. How he did it I have said. People of Massachusetts, act as it seems to you best in this case.

The California Pony Express.

DEPARTURE OF THE FIRST DISPATCH FROM ST. JOSEPH'S.

ST. LOUIS, Wednesday, April 4.

The departure of the California Pony Express, last evening, was delayed two hours by the detention of the New-York messenger. In the meantime an immense crowd had gathered around the Express office to witness the inauguration of this great and novel enterprise. Before the departure of the Express, the assembly were addressed by Mayor THOMASON and Messrs. MAJORS and RUSSELL, of the Express Company, who in brief and appropriate remarks, set forth the benefits to the country from this undertaking, and the prospects of its future and undoubted success, which were received with applause. The messenger from New-York lost a connection by the withdrawal of a train between Detroit and Chicago, which would have delayed the Express twenty-four hours, but for the courtesy of General Superintendent HAYWARD, of the Hannibal and St. Joseph Railroad, who brought him here by a special train from Palmyra, 192 miles, in 4 hours and 57 minutes, making eight stops of five minutes each. He arrived so as to only delay the Express 2 hours and 15 minutes. At 7½ o'clock, the bag containing voluminous telegraphic dispatches from all parts of the country, for the Sacramento Union, the San Francisco Bulletin, and the Alta California, together with forty-nine letters, five private telegrams, and some papers for San Francisco and intermediate points, was, by request of W. H. RUSSELL, placed upon the pony, a spirited bay mare, by Mayor THOMASON, amidst great enthusiasm, when the little bay dashed off at a rapid rate, bearing her burden towards the Golden State. The return courier should arrive here on Friday next, April 13, when the advices he brings will be promptly forwarded to the Associated Press. The telegraphic dispatches for this route are duplicated on paper, besides a duplicate being taken on linen, prepared for the purpose, in indelible ink, and carefully sealed. Water-proof copies are thus forwarded to different points in order to guard against any chance of delay or miscarriage.

ATCHISON, Wednesday, April 4.

The Pony Express to San Francisco made the first 45 miles to Kinekuka in five hours and ten minutes, the pony showing no signs of fatigue.

NOTICE TO THE PUBLIC.

The breaking up of the cold weather, and the presence of Spring, excite the bile and inertia of our citizens, causing a feeling of lassitude and heaviness, aching and dizziness of the head, and what is commonly known as SPRING FEVER. And why? Because the sudden change of weather calls all the impurities and secretions of the system into action, and the results are the ills complained of; but there is a sure and certain remedy. "THE BLOOD IS THE LIFE," and if the BLOOD be free from all impurities and putrid humors, there will be no disease.

Dr. S. P. TOWNSEND'S SARSAPARILLA,
as manufactured under the direction of the celebrated chemist and physician, Dr. JAMES R. CHILTON, is the only effective and permanent RENOVATOR AND PURIFIER OF THE BLOOD,
as it contains all the vegetable substances which experience has tested and proved useful in ERADICATING DISEASE FROM THE SYSTEM.
A few bottles will most effectually regulate and cleanse the system, and KEEP THE BLOOD PURE.

TO PERSONS FOND OF A BEAUTIFUL PICTURE
THE CELEBRATED LARGE ENGRAVING OF CHRIST AND HIS APOSTLES,
FROM THORWALDSEN'S IMMORTAL GROUP—SIZE 24 BY 32—AND A BEAUTIFUL BIBLE IN GILT,
FOR ONLY $2.

We compel the arts to give us mementoes of our departed friends, and we remember their virtues, and catch inspiration to perform good deeds from their smiles, but what parent has done as much for us as the fishermen of Galilee, the

STAR OF NAZARETH?

From Rev. Dr. Abel Stevens, Editor of New-York Christian Advocate and Journal.

* * * * The group is inclosed in an illumination of exquisite beauty and many finely delineated Scripture scenes, such as "John Preaching in the Wilderness," "The Last Supper," "Christ Blessing Little Children." There seems to be an increased disposition to provide a superior class of religious engravings for families. This example is one of the very best. It should adorn the walls of every Christian man's home.

From Rev. Dr. Prime, Editor of the N. Y. Observer.

* * * * One of the pictures hangs in our study, and we regard the work as eminently suitable for the walls of every Christian household.

Altogether this is the greatest triumph of art ever witnessed in this country. The religious Press speak in enraptured terms of the work, and recommend its introduction into every family in the land.

Agents wanted everywhere. $1 15 will secure a letter of agency, stating special terms, with one copy of the engraving. $4 50 will insure six engravings, postage free. Address, DAYTON & CO., American and European Engraving Warehouse, No. 37 Park row, N. Y.

HUNDREDS OF THE UNFORTUNATE are disappointed of a cure by not calling on Dr. HUNTER at first. The Hunterian Dispensary, No. 3 Division-st., New-York City, established in 1834, for the Preservation of Human Life, PRIVATE CONSULTATION.—Dr. Hunter has for thirty years confined his attention to diseases of a certain class, in which he has treated not less than fifty thousand cases, without an instance of failure. His great remedy, HUNTER'S RED DROP, cures certain diseases when regular treatment and all other remedies fail; cures without dieting or restriction in the habits of the patient; cures without the disgusting and sickening effects of all other remedies; cures, in new cases, in less than six hours. It roots out the poisonous taint the blood is sure to absorb, unless this remedy is used. It is $1 a vial, and cannot be obtained genuine anywhere but at the old office, No. 3 Division-st. Book for nothing, that treats of the evil effects of early abuse and indulgence, is embellished with elaborate colored engravings, portraying every feature and phase of disease, exposes the fallacy of the ordinary modes adopted for the cure of local as well as hereditary maladies, and gives the only safe and infallible remedy for expunging every trace of the virus from the system.

STEAMBOATS.

STEAMER JOHN BROOKS.—THIS NEW AND favorite steamboat is again on her route between New-York and Bridgeport. Her owner had withdrawn her for a few weeks during the Winter for the purpose of painting her. When she was first brought out last season she proved herself to be one of the fastest boats in our American waters, making a daily passage to and from New-York during the Summer months, and averaging, from wharf to wharf for 80 consecutive passages three hours and twenty-two minutes, the longest passage being four hours and the shortest three hours. Her capacities for freight and passengers are unsurpassed. Her veteran commander, John Brooks, has no superior on this or any other route. The courtesy of Mr. John Hubbell, her Clerk, is well known; his attention to passengers and correct business habits make him a favorite with all who enjoy his acquaintance. Success, we say, to this splendid sailing craft, her officers and owner. Commend us to them when we have occasion to pass over the Sound.

MEXICAN AFFAIRS.

How the News of the Seizure of Marin was Received at the Capital—The Clergy and the Press—Indian Revolts—Displacement of Mr. Mathews as English Resident—Varieties—Protest of Marin.

From Our Own Correspondent.

MEXICO, Sunday, March 18, 1860.

The arrival of a mail to the British Legation from Vera Cruz has given us some light upon passing events at that port. The capture of the fleet of Gen. MARIN is the great event, and has thrown this city into a state of fermentation never before witnessed, except upon the occasion of the landing of Gen. SCOTT. The local Press has since literally groaned in its labors of giving to this public the refined and concentrated curses of the clergy upon the heads of the "accursed (Malditos) Yankees." Sufficient time has not yet elapsed for them to take any definite course, and up to now all is undecided as to what means for revenge are to be adopted. Many speculations are rife, and the threats of the clergy give reasons for suppositions that extreme measures will be adopted against us unfortunate Americans, who are left here unprotected, with the alternatives of abandoning our occupations and business, and thereby becoming ruined, or stopping in the country and thereby suffering the persecution which our own Government has brought upon us, through its professed love for liberal institutions and its incapacity to adopt an honorable and decided foreign policy. Some say we are all to be banished. Others believe we will not be banished, but one by one submitted to such persecutions as the fertile minds of this cowardly people are capable of inventing. The future immediately darkens upon us, and if our Government now remains inactive and inoperative, tales, such as those of Tacubaya, Tepic, &c., &c., it may be expected, will come thick and fast upon us. The seizure of MARIN has caused a deep feeling here, and one which it is hopeless to think of removing by fine words. Nothing will now do but blows, for however much in the right the commander of the Saratoga was in firing upon and capturing MARIN, the clergy are so blind to their own interests, and so cowardly and revengeful in their spirits, that they will never lose an opportunity for taking revenge. Of this be assured; and therefore if you hear of more of us being butchered and hung up like dogs to gratify the passions of the fanatics of Mexico, you may know the cause.

The clergy have placed new restrictions upon the Press, and do not allow even their own papers to be distributed before they are carefully scrutinized. They are very much afraid that one word might find light that reflected upon them or their prospects. They are pretty well aware the Vera Cruz campaign is a failure, and that they can only save their immediate position by keeping the public in the dark and by gathering their scattered forces without delay.

The Indian insurrections are largely on the increase. The success of the savages in Yucatan, where they put to death some 2,400 of the State troops, has given great encouragement to the Indians throughout the country. We hear that a body of them, some 4,000 strong, are now laying waste the western portion of this State, destroying and killing everything that pertains to the white race. Their cry is, "Death to the whites, and Long live Liberty!" They are as yet an undisciplined herd, but if they are allowed to go on they are quite likely to find a clever man to lead them before long, and then they will be able to turn into their ranks all the Indians of the country. It is sad to contemplate the turn this servile insurrection is likely to take, for we can no longer look upon it as a thing to be commenced. For many months it has been apparent that this civil war would change its character, and instead of being a struggle between two parties claiming to be civilized, it is now rapidly turning its force against both, and threatening to destroy the few who still remain of the white race. There can be no question now that the war of castes has begun in Mexico. Where it will end is a new problem for us. The Indians are at best as five or six to one of the whites; and if we consider that nearly all of the negroes and mongrels will go with them, we shall find the "colored gemmen" at least twenty times as strong as the dirty whites of Mexico. They have all the best military men, and some of the most distinguished statesmen (the word can hardly be used) in the country, and if these men unite their heads the day is not far ahead when MONTEZUMA III, will mount the throne of Mexico. Whether BENITO, JUAREZ, LOSADA, MEJIA, ROJAS, or some other, will be the man, depends upon what course the war is to take. My own impression is, the clergy will seize hold of the Indians, and by recognizing and sanctioning all their atrocities, urge them on to unheard-of cruelties. In that event, woe to the unfortunate foreigners—especially Americans and English—living in this country. They will come off badly.

By the mail just in we learn the British Government has appointed a new man over the head of Mr. MATHEWS, as Minister to Mexico. It is difficult to understand the meaning of this move of the British Government. A few months ago they recalled their Minister OTWAY for being a violent partisan of the Clergy, for neglecting his own countrymen, for refusing protection to Americans, and, in fact, for being about as inefficient and unsuitable a man as ever disgraced any public service. Mr. MATHEW, a fine, generous gentleman, was left in his place. Up to the present time he has labored with unremitting zeal for his own countrymen and for Americans, and all foreigners in general. He has warned his Government of the actual results of the Clergy rule, and unquestionably done all in his power to obtain the favor of his Government for the only party that could restore order to the country. For this he has been attacked most violently in the London journals, by a set of anonymous letter-writers, believed to consist of OTWAY and some London briefless barrister—who have charged him with being the tool of the Americanizers of Mexico; and this charge has been harped upon so much that Lord JOHN RUSSELL has become scared and named a new man. The appointment is a very bad compliment to the English in Mexico, to us, and to the judgment of him who has made it. As there is little question that Mr. MATHEW's friendship for liberal institutions has caused his removal for him, we may for the present entertain very serious fears that England has already agreed to the scheme for European intervention in Mexico.

The preparations for the defence of this capital are going ahead rapidly. A new line of works, at about half-a-mile's distance from the city walls, is now being erected. These works are much too imposing for any native attack, and clearly show the clergy expect, at no distant day, to be forced to contend with a foreign foe.

We hear CARVAJAL has just cut to pieces the Clergy forces in the Plain of Perote. A number of the dispersed have returned here, and if they are not deserters, and any reliance can be placed on their accounts, the Constitutionalists have complete possession of the entire rear of MIRAMON, and should be able to destroy his disabled army as it falls back from Vera Cruz.

There appears to be no doubt that the clergy have been completely destroyed in the State of Oajaca. In the Villa de Ejatla the populace destroyed a small Clergy force by beating them to death with clubs and stones. The commander of this force was a brother of SEGURA, the editor of the Diario de Avisos of this city.

From the interior we hear of many excesses being committed by both parties. The reports come to us through the clergy, and little reliance can be put on them, so far as they refer to their opponents, but as to their own doings there can be no question. The movement of ORTEGA with the bulk of his forces from Zacatecas, gave the clergy an opportunity to enter the State, which they did, and took signal vengeance upon the defenceless inhabitants.

In this valley AURELIANA has possession of San Augustin, Contreras, and all the other villages towards Ajusco. On the other side of the valley the scattered forces of the unfortunate VILLALBA have been reorganized under the command of a young man, an old companion of MIRAMON, who is said to be a plucky fellow and not a bad officer. It is expected he will do something for the Constitutional cause very soon. He has possession of the villages at the foot of the volcanos.

We have no late news from Vera Cruz, but it is expected MIRAMON is about returning here. By the mail which leaves to-day GABRIAC sends strong orders to Admiral PENAUD. He yesterday declared in the palace that he would force the American fleet to leave the waters of Vera Cruz, or blow the vessels to pieces. This is strong talk. We will see if the Admiral will think as he does. If so, the Mexican question will assume a new character. I have been saying, for the past two years, through the TIMES, that affairs were tending to the point they are now near to. But nobody bothered themselves. We shall see what effect the French movements will have upon our gradually declining sense of national honor.

Com. Marin's Protest Against the Seizure of His Vessels.

The following is the protest of Com. MARIN, already noticed in our dispatches:

Be it known that, on the 27th day of February last, the undersigned left the City of Havana, with two steamers, which he had purchased from merchants of that place, by order and for account of the Supreme Government of Mexico, having given to one of them the name of Gen. Miramon, after she had been nationalized as a Mexican steamer, and retaining for the other the name of Marques de la Habana, until she was nationalized as Mexican, which was to take place, only, after reaching the coast of Mexico, and provided she had approved herself in good condition during the voyage.

The undersigned, according to instructions from his Government, was bound to, and on the 6th of March, arrived at the port of Anton Lizardo, which is a port of the Republic of Mexico, and there anchored his steamers.

On the night of the same day, at the hour of 11½ o'clock, he was approached by three vessels, two steamers and a three-masted ship, to wit: the steamer Wave, whom the undersigned knew to be in the service of Don BENITO JUAREZ, the President of Vera Cruz, the steamer Indianola, a merchant vessel, known also as being in the interest, and at the service of said Don BENITO JUAREZ, and what turned out afterwards to be the Saratoga, a war vessel of the United States.

The undersigned believing the said steamers, Wave and Indianola, to be in the service and under the orders of the Vera Cruz Government, and supposing that they were towing up armed launches of said Government, to attack him, ordered the anchors to be raised, and pressed the fire at the engine. At this very moment, and, at a short interval from each other, he received two ball-shots from the approaching vessels, which were immediately returned by the Miramon. Presently the masts of the ship became more apparent, and the undersigned, taking his spy-glass, soon discovered that the aforesaid steamers were not towing armed launches of the Government of Vera Cruz, as he had supposed, but a frigate, which, it struck him, might be of the United States, though she had no flag at her mast, any more than the Wave and Indianola; and at once he ordered his men to cease firing, as his Government, not being at war with the United States, had instructed him sedulously to avoid all complications with that nation. But the fire from the attacking vessel was resumed with increased vigor, both with cannon and musketry. The steamers Miramon and Marques de la Habana were boarded and captured, and the undersigned, with his officers and crew, reduced to rigorous captivity. The number of men killed and wounded on board of his steamer, the undersigned cannot state, as he was held, immediately after being taken, in strict and solitary confinement.

On the 13th, the undersigned was transferred, with some of the men under him, on board of the Preble, another vessel-of-war of the United States, which left on the 14th for New-Orleans, where the undersigned and his men were landed on the 26th, and conducted to the public jail under escort.

The undersigned would state, in addition, that among the persons prominent on board of the attacking vessels, and clearly engaged in the expedition, were Señor GOICOURIA, Col. JOSE OROPEZA, and the well-known Señor LA LLAVE, one of the Generals of Don BENITO JUAREZ.

For all which, and in view of the claim for redress and satisfaction which his Government may have to urge, on account of the outrage committed by Capt. TURNER, of the Saratoga, without the least color of right, pretense or excuse, upon vessels and men belonging to the Mexican Republic, in the waters of Mexico, and within cannon-shot from the coast, the undersigned hereby publicly, and in the most solemn manner, protests:

1. Against his having been approached stealthily, and in the night, while at anchor in one of the ports of the Republic to which he belongs, by the Saratoga, a war-vessel of the United States, commanded by Capt. TURNER, of the United States Navy, in concert with the steamer Wave, a vessel in the service of the Vera Cruz Government, and with the Indianola, a merchant steamer, known to be in the interest of, and under directions from the same Government, without cause, and against his having, whilst Mexico is at peace with the United States, been fired at, in flagrant violation of the law of nations.

2. The undersigned protests against his having been reduced to captivity with his officers and crew, and brought to this port of New-Orleans, the undersigned being kept during the whole passage in strict confinement.

3. The undersigned protests against the capture of the steamers under his orders, and against their transportation to this port.

4. The undersigned protests against the slaughter that was made of his men, when firing had ceased on board the Mexican steamer, and when resistance was no longer offered on his part.

5. The undersigned protests against the outrageous manner in which he and his men were taken to the jail in this city, as common felons, without cause or warrant, and against their having been detained in it to this day, though no complaint as yet has been entered, in Court or elsewhere, charging any of them with any offence or delinquency whatever.

THOMAS MARIN,
Admiral of the Mexican Navy.

NEW-ORLEANS, March 27, 1860.

CITY INTELLIGENCE.

THE LATE ISAAC TOWNSEND.—The funeral of ISAAC TOWNSEND, late Governor of the Almshouse, took place yesterday afternoon from Grace Church, and was attended by the Mayor of the City, both branches of the Common Council, the Board of Ten Governors, and a large concourse of prominent citizens and friends of the deceased. The services were conducted in the Episcopal form, by Rev. Dr. TAYLOR, rector of the Church, assisted by Rev. Dr. HIGBEE, and Rev. Mr. HAUGHTON. The following list of pall-bearers, selected entirely from the business associates of the deceased, testifies to the high standing, which he held in the mercantile world: Wm. E. Wilmerding, Geo. Duer, R. S. Hone, Reuben Withers, John Steward, Auguste Belmont, Jno. J. Kingsford Wm. H. Aspinwall, Isaac Bell, Simeon Draper. The attending physicians were Drs. Delafield, Marcoe, Clark, and Elliott. The body was deposited in the family vault at Trinity Cemetery. A meeting of the Medical Board of Bellevue Hospital was held on Tuesday at the house of Dr. James R. Wood, to take action in regard to the death of Mr. TOWNSEND. Drs. Clark, Parker and Jas. R. Wood, were appointed a Committee to draft suitable resolutions, and submitted the following, which were adopted unanimously:

Whereas, The Medical Board of Bellevue Hospital desire to express their deep grief on hearing of the death of Mr. Isaac Townsend; and whereas, in his decease the cause of human charity becomes a mourner; the poor have lost a friend; the Government of the Alms-house Department one of the most liberal, efficient and devoted members, and New-York one of her most intelligent and best citizens, therefore,

Resolved, That we express to his afflicted family our heartfelt sympathy and sincere condolence in their great bereavement, and as an expression of sorrow for our own loss, we will wear the usual badge of mourning, and in respect for his exalted character and many virtues, will attend the funeral in a body.

Resolved, That this preamble and resolution be communicated to the family of the deceased.

The following resolution was also adopted:

Resolved, That the Secretary (Dr. JOHN W. GREENE) supply a badge of mourning to each member of the Medical Board, at the house of Dr. LEWIS A. SAYRE, at 1¾ o'clock, on Wednesday, the 4th inst.

The meeting then adjourned.

MYSTERIOUS DISAPPEARANCE.—The family of a well-known citizen has been plunged in the greatest distress in consequence of the sudden disappearance of a near relative—a young lady fifteen or sixteen years of age. The lady in question for the last few months has been an inmate of a well-known boarding-school at Eagleswood, New-Jersey. Her room-mate on awaking several mornings since, very much to her surprise, saw that the couch which her companion had occupied was vacant. As she failed to make her appearance at the breakfast-table, inquiries were immediately instituted, which resulted in discovering that she had taken the early boat for New-York. The captain of the boat stated that a young lady answering the description given came up to the City with him on the morning in question; that he did not notice she was on board until some time after he had left the dock, and that he did not observe the direction in which she went after she landed. Thus far vigilant detectives have failed to obtain any trace of the missing one. Those under whose charge she was until the time of her disappearance are unable to imagine a motive for her sudden flight. She had expressed no dissatisfaction with the arrangements of the school, nor had she, so far as is known, any admirer outside of the institution who would have been likely to urge her to an elopement.

LECTURE ON THE LIFE AND CHARACTER OF DR. ADAM CLARKE.—An interesting lecture on the life, character and labors of the great commentator, Dr. ADAM CLARKE, was delivered last evening, in St. Paul's Methodist Church, on Fourth-avenue, by Rev. Dr. MCCLINTOCK. The subject matter of the lecture was drawn mainly from the volumes edited by JOSEPH CLARKE, the son of Dr. CLARKE, and the lecturer treated his theme under four heads: the Doctor's youth and early training; his ministerial labors; his vast literary acquirements; and the prodigious amount of labor he performed, as a Christian and a philanthropist. Each topic was illustrated with copious extracts from the volumes referred to, which were commented on,—sometimes eloquently, sometimes colloquially, by the lecturer, who was heard throughout with marked attention by an intelligent audience, which, considering the state of the weather, was quite large.

PANIC IN A PUBLIC SCHOOL.—About noon yesterday the Principal of the Primary Department of Ward School No. 24, in Rivington-street, observed some vapor escaping from one of the registers, and stepping to the door requested a boy who was passing to call the Janitor. Another boy who was going by at the same moment also happened to see the vapor, and supposing it to be smoke, became alarmed and called out "Fire." This occasioned a temporary panic, and a few of the scholars hurried out; the rest were dismissed slowly and in order. Fortunately, no one was injured, and had it not been for the excitement in the neighborhood and the great number of parents crowding in for their children, the school would not have been dismissed. It is happily the case that this building is heated by hot water, and the furnaces are so placed that there is no possibility of any fire occurring from them.

INTERFERING WITH THE SHAD FISHERY.—The Acting General Superintendent of Police yesterday issued an order directing Capt. GIBSON, of the Harbor Police, to procure a tug and, with a sufficient number of men, enter forthwith upon the work of removing all shad-poles from the New-York side of the Hudson River that he may find placed where the water is deeper than six feet at mean low tide. This order was given at the request of the Board of Harbor Commissioners, who, by the law of April 16, 1857, are authorized to inhibit the placing of poles where they might act as an obstruction to free navigation. To-day probably the work of pulling them up will be commenced under the supervision of Harbor Commissioner, GEO. W. BLUNT, and it is estimated that at least half of those down are in deeper water than is prescribed; thus making their owners liable for a fine of $5 for each offending pole.

AMERICAN ENGINEERS' ASSOCIATION.—The second monthly meeting of the above Association was held last evening at the Cooper Institute, CHARLES MCCARTHY, Vice-President, in the Chair. The objects of this Association, as defined in the constitution, are the "elevation of engineering as a profession, by the establishment of courses of lectures and discussions on scientific subjects; by the formation of a cabinet of models and minerals, and a library; by examining new inventions; investigating the causes of accidents, and such other means as they may judge expedient." The topic of the evening was "Low Water Indicators as at present in use." Several instruments were shown, and their merits discussed. A number of members were admitted.

HISTORICAL SOCIETY RECEPTION.—A brilliant assemblage thronged the rooms of the Historical Society last evening. The galleries and library were thrown open for the delight of the members and their friends, and through these different departments the crowd ebbed and flowed until a late hour. One of the most attractive features of this delightful reception was the portrait of WASHINGTON IRVING, by BRADY. The fidelity with which the lineaments of the lamented original were portrayed, and the exquisite skill exhibited in their reproduction elicited the highest praise from all; and among those who lingered around the portrait there were many whose former intimate friendship with the eminent author enabled them to speak with discrimination of the admirable likeness. All the arrangements of the evening were conceived and executed in a manner which secured the greatest amount of enjoyment to each individual present, as was demonstrated by the lateness of the hour at which the last Historical departed.

VESSELS REQUIRED TO FURNISH BILLS OF HEALTH.—The ushering in of April is the signal for preliminary precaution against the importation by vessels arriving at this port of infectious diseases Dr. GUNN, the Health Officer of the port, has just issued orders requiring captains of vessels trading between New-York and the West Indies and other tropical ports to furnish themselves with bills of health from the Health Authorities of the ports whence they respectively sailed, for presentation on their arrival here, under the penalty of detention at Quarantine. The same requisition extends to all coastwise vessels arriving from ports south of Cape Henlopen.

THE PATROLMEN AND THEIR PAY.—The appropriation for the Police having become exhausted, the Patrolmen have so far received no pay for their services during the past month, which, of course, in many instances subjects them to great inconvenience. Unless some benevolent individual should advance funds to the City in their behalf, as Mr. A. V. STOUT did last year, they will have to wait for their wages until after the passage of the tax-levy. The Captains and Sergeants were fortunate enough to obtain their pay before the funds gave out.

THE SEVENTY-NINTH (HIGHLAND) REGIMENT, N. Y. S. M.—Col. MCLEAY, of the Seventy-ninth Regiment, has issued orders for two batallion drills, the one to take place on the 11th, the other on the 25th of April. It is proposed to have a grand moonlight parade (with a full band of music) early in May. The regiment will be formed in two wings—those who muster in the kilt being placed on the right, and those in pantaloons on the left.

NEW BUILDINGS.—One of the largest, if not the largest stores in the City is, it is stated, about to be erected for CLAFLIN, MELLEN & Co. The edifice will front 375 feet on Worth-street, and 80 feet on West Broadway and Church-street—occupying about half a square. The building will be of marble front, and cost $200,000, and the ground is worth $120,000, making the total cost $320,000. SAMUEL A. WARNER is the architect.

EXTREME DESTITUTION.—A whole family, consisting of JOHN HASSEN, his wife, aged mother, and three children, were found on Tuesday night, by the Twenty-second Precinct Police, lying upon the sidewalk in Forty-eighth-street, near Eleventh-avenue, homeless, almost naked, and so enfeebled for lack of nourishment that they could scarcely stand. Their destitution was the result of HASSEN's intemperance, and Justice QUACKENBUSH committed him to prison, while the women and children were placed under the care of the Governors of the Almshouse.

THAT DREADFUL BELL.—The cast-steel bell, landed here recently, en route for San Francisco, and which has been lying in the Park for the past fortnight, to the great delight of boys and amateur bell-ringers, was yesterday hoisted and hung beneath the City bell, preparatory to the trial of their comparative merits, which will take place to-day. The operation attracted large crowds during the day, and was completed without accident.

AMERICAN GEOGRAPHICAL AND STATISTICAL SOCIETY.—At the regular monthly meeting, this evening, in Clinton Hall, a paper will be read by Mr. ABRAHAM GESNER, M. D., on "The Recent Elevations and Depressions of the Lands of Northern America." The General Secretary will also read a communication from the Hydrographical Office, Washington, on "The Progress of Marine Geography."

HARLEM RAILROAD.—The Harlem Railroad Company has placed six new cars upon its City line, increasing the number to nearly forty now running. This addition reduces the interval between them to about two minutes—a change which will be a great accommodation to persons leaving the City by the trains, as well as to those residing on the route of the City line.

RAILROAD CONDUCTOR KILLED.—About 7 o'clock P. M, yesterday, one of the conductors on the Second-avenue Railroad named FREDERICK WHITE, of Harlem, came to his death by being caught between a moving car and the wall of the depôt. He was so badly injured that he died in ten minutes. He leaves a family.

VETERANS OF THE NATIONAL GUARD.—The annual meeting of the Veterans of the National Guard was held last evening at the Lafarge House. The principal business transacted was the election of officers, a majority of whom are the incumbents of the last year, who hold over under the rules of the organization.

Police Reports.

STOLE FROM THEIR BENEFACTOR.

Mrs. Bridget Smith, who resides in Eighty-fourth-street, near Eighth-avenue, a few days since received a destitute married couple, named Patrick and Bridget McDermott, into her house, until such time as they should be able to obtain other accommodations. After remaining a day or two, they repaid her kindness by absconding with her little hoard of $50. Officer Bernholz, of the Twenty-second Ward, succeeded in arresting the graceless vagrants, and recovered the money, which the woman had concealed in her stocking. The prisoners were committed by Justice QUACKENBUSH to answer for the larceny.

FORGERY.

A young man named Edward McGowan—not the notorious "Ned" of San Francisco—was yesterday arrested, upon a charge of purloining a letter from the Post-office containing a check for twenty-five dollars, forging the signature of J. M. Morrison, and afterwards getting the check cashed. The check was sent through the Post-office by John Penfield. McGowan, to whom the "operation" was traced, told conflicting stories as to how he became possessed of the check, and was held at the Fourteenth Ward Station-house for examination.

A DANGEROUS COUNTERFEIT.

Counterfeit five-dollar bills on the Danbury Bank, of Danbury, Conn., were put in circulation on Tuesday night, most of the theatres having taken one of them in payment for admission. The notes apparently are altered from the issues of the Government Stock Bank of Ann Arbor, Mich., an institution that failed several years ago, and are very well executed.

FIGHT ON SHIPBOARD.

James Smith, second mate of the ship John Fife, which arrived yesterday from Glasgow, while in a drunken fit assaulted George Almi, the first officer, and badly injured him. Smith was arrested by the Harbor Police and locked up to await examination. The fight grew out of some old grudge which originated during the voyage.

DRIVING TOO FAST.

Officer Porce, of the Central Park Police, on Tuesday arrested Wm. McDonald, the keeper of a livery-stable, for having, in exercising a horse on one of the avenues, driven faster than allowed by the regulations of the Park. Justice BROWNELL, before whom he was taken, imposed a fine upon him.

Coroners' Inquests.

THE MURDERS IN WEST-STREET.

On the 23d ultimo a fight occurred between a number of men at the drinking-saloon No. 80 West-street, and during its progress two of the belligerents, named WILLIAM HICKEY and JOHN KEEVAN, were stabbed by the proprietor of the place, who was arrested. The wounded men were taken to the New-York Hospital, where HICKEY died within a few days of his admission, and KEEVAN, having lingered until Tuesday, finally sank from the effects of his injuries. Coroner SCHIRMER yesterday held an inquest at the Trinity-place Station-house upon the body of KEEVAN, at which similar evidence to that taken in the case of HICKEY was adduced, resulting in a verdict that death had been caused by peritonitis, the result of wounds at the hands of DUNNIGAN. The prisoner states that he used the knife in self-defence, but the evidence does not verify his assertion. The friends of the deceased parties are greatly enraged against DUNNIGAN, and threats of lynching him having been made by the crowd on his appearance yesterday at the inquest, the officers had to remove him to another room. DUNNIGAN is a vicious-looking fellow, and is said to have stabbed a man named CHRISTOPHER MORAN, at the drinking-saloon No. 25 State-street, Brooklyn, about a month ago; but he was never tried for the offence, on account of the refusal of MORAN to appear against him.

Our Political Organizations.

THE YOUNG MEN'S DEMOCRATIC UNION CLUB.

This organization, now in the eighth year of its existence, has secured a suite of capacious rooms at the Union House, in Union-square, which were to have been inaugurated by an address from Hon. Mr. SMITH, of Tennessee, last evening. Owing to the inclemency of the weather, and some misunderstanding as to the time when Mr. SMITH would arrive, the address was deferred to Friday evening next. The Club is preparing for active work during the coming Presidential campaign.

THE NATIONAL UNION CLUB.

The Young Men's National Union Club held a regular meeting at Clinton Hall last evening. Twenty members were present, and less than half the Wards were represented. Upon an election of officers, Gen. JOHN LLOYD was chosen Chairman. The members freely discussed the elections in Connecticut and Rhode Island, and the coming National Convention of the Union Party at Baltimore, and appeared to be of the opinion, that as a balance of power throughout the Union their organization would be of some consequence.

Rev. Dr. Adams on Labor.

A LECTURE IN AID OF THE FIRST GERMAN PRESBYTERIAN CHURCH.

The sixth and last of a course of lectures in aid of the First German Presbyterian Church, in Sixth-street, was delivered in that Church last evening, by Rev. Dr. ADAMS. His subject was "Labor," which he proposed to consider in its relations to character, rather than in its connection with political economy. The phrase "laboring classes" he disliked, as tending to perpetuate distinctions that did not exist, and to engender false notions upon the whole subject of labor. According to the Christian dispensation, we are all laborers, and the labor of all, provided it is legitimate and necessary, is alike honorable. Half of the trouble that arises out of this subject of labor would be avoided by a recognition of the doctrine of the New Testament, of the honorable character and mutual dependence of all varieties of labor. The professional man and the mechanic, the student and the farmer, though laboring in different fields, were mutually dependent upon each other, and were engaged in equally useful and respectable occupations. It was a great mistake to suppose that the man who works with his mind is not a laborer; his is the hardest kind of labor.

The labor of the hands finds cessation and repose in sleep, while that of the mind perpetuates itself after its task is finished. The celebrated WM. PITT was in the habit of repeating in his sleep the speeches that he had delivered during the day. There was no sleep for his restless and over-wrought brain. The consequence was, that at the early age of 47 he was sleeping in Westminster Abbey, instead of following the plow in Ayrshire, with firm step, at the age of 70 or 80. The false notions with regard to the respectability of various kinds of labor had been, and still were, the source of incalculable evils. Young girls would rather starve in a garret, in the attempt to earn a living by the needle, than to enjoy a comfortable home as domestics, merely because they were deluded by the false notion that the former vocation was more "respectable" than the latter. The speaker dwelt at considerable length upon this point, and argued that every kind of honest and useful labor was equally respectable, and looked upon with equal favor by Him who had ordered that man should earn his bread in the sweat of his brow.

The lecturer then spoke of the mistaken attempts of Social Reformers to achieve what they called the "elevation of labor." He alluded to the decrees of the Provisional Government of France immediately following the Revolution of 1848, wherein they undertook to carry out the Socialistic theory, and provide work for the citizens. The attempt proved a failure, as might have been expected, and the poor deluded followers of these mistaken theorists, were swept from the streets by CAVAIGNAC's cannon and bayonets. When PATRICK HENRY was an old man, the late Dr. RICE, of Virginia, took his young son to see him, in hopes that some word might fall from the lips of the eloquent old man that would leave a lasting impression upon the heart of the youth. HENRY gazed into the face of the boy and said, "Young man, remember that every man is the maker of his own fortunes and character." In that single sentence was more truth, more sense and more sound philosophy than in all the decrees of the Provisional Government of France, or all the theories of the Social Reformers. The individuality of man is the fundamental idea of the Christian philosophy, and any Government or social organization that interferes with this individuality is anti-Christian, anti-common sense and false.

OUR CITY GOVERNMENT.

THE BOARD OF EDUCATION.

ELECTION OF A CITY SUPERINTENDENT AND AN ASSISTANT—ERECTION OF NEW SCHOOL BUILDINGS—EXPENSES OF THE DEPARTMENT, ETC.

At the meeting of the Board of Education last evening, the pay-roll of the Schools in the Fourth Ward was presented, and a resolution to adopt it, notwithstanding the refusal of one of the Ward officers to sign it, was passed.

A communication was received from the School Officers of the Ninth Ward, asking for the appropriation of $36,533 for the erection of a building for School No. 3. The communication was referred to the Committee on Finance.

A communication was received from the School Officers of the First Ward, asking that bills amounting to over $1,400 be paid for putting a school house in good condition, was referred.

The President announced that the election of a City Superintendent and an assistant was in order. The term of Mr. S. S. RANDALL, the present City Superintendent, and of Mr. HENRY KIDDLE, his assistant, will expire in June. On the first ballot, both gentlemen were reëlected for two years, by a nearly unanimous vote.

The report in favor of confirming the nomination of Mr. Williams to the office of a Trustee of the Seventeenth Ward, and Patrick Magan a Trustee of the Twelfth Ward, were taken up and adopted.

The Committee on Supplies sent in a report showing the cost per scholar for supplies for each year since 1853. The report showed that the average attendance in the Schools for 1859 was 51,712, and that the amount of supplies furnished during the year amounted to $60,066 85, being an expense of $1 16 for each pupil, or a decrease of $24,141 23, as compared with the cost of 1858.

The report of the Committee on Elections, in favor of confirming the nomination of Mr. Delamater as School Commissioner from the Sixteenth Ward, was received, and Mr. Delamater was confirmed.

The Committee on Supplies reported having contracted for pure Lehigh coal for the ensuing year at the rate of $4 93 per ton.

The Committee on School Furniture reported in favor of appropriating $5,500 for pianos for sundry Schools. The report was adopted.

A report, recognizing the need of a new school building for Ward School No. 32, but recommending, in consequence of the exhausted state of the treasury, that the construction of a proper edifice be postponed until next year, was submitted and adopted.

The Committee on Finance recommended the adoption of the following resolution:

Resolved, That the sums hereinafter mentioned be taken out of the school moneys for 1860.

Salaries of Teachers and Janitors	$65,000
Support of Free Academy	5,000
Normal School	3,000
Evening Schools	2,000
Supplies through the Depository	15,000
Rents of School Premises	5,000
Pianos for Ward Schools	5,000
Incidental Expenses of Board of Education	5,000
Special Appropriations	25,000

The resolution was adopted.

The Comptroller was directed to draw his warrant for $150,000, to be placed at the disposal of the Board.

The Finance Committee reported a balance on hand, on account of special appropriations, of $90,295 04.

A report was received in relation to the safety of the new school building, No. 14, now in progress of construction in Twenty-seventh-street, near Third-avenue. The report favored an extra expenditure of $7,500, to render the building secure. The Committee recommended wooden beams between the iron beams now in the building, more mason work, &c.

Mr. TUCKER did not agree with the other members of the Committee, in so far as the weight of the floors was to be largely increased. He favored filling in with wood and deadening the floors with the usual Georgia pine. In conclusion, he moved, as an amendment, that extra wooden beams and wooden floors be substituted for the additional iron beams and the brick arches. He also stated that his plan could be carried out without additional expense, as the contractors would do the work for the same that they would put in the brick arches.

The amendment was adopted, by a vote of 14 to 9, and the resolution, as amended, after the appropriation had been stricken out, was adopted.

The Board then adjourned.

COMPTROLLER'S OFFICE.

A HARD CASE.

A case of peculiar hardship, caused by the fraud of a well-known lawyer, who fled the country in 1854, leaving behind him as large a record of deliberate villainous malversation of trusts as has been known for many years, was brought to the notice of the Comptroller yesterday. In 1853 the lawyer in question sold to a man in moderate circumstances a lot of ground on Eighteenth-street, upon which there was a mortgage for $1,000, held by the City, but no mention was made of this at the time, nor was any search of title instituted, the purchaser being willing to take title of the City. The lawyer paid the interest on the $1,000 regularly up to the time of his flight, so that notice should not reach the purchaser, and after his departure a mortgage of $1,900 given to the lawyer was paid to his assignee, and this, it was supposed, paid for the property. Mr. FRANKLIN, collector of City revenues, discovered yesterday, however, that for five years no interest had been paid, and this, (which, unless relief is granted, subjects the property to resale,) was the first intimation the purchaser had of the fraud which had been practiced on him. An application to the Supervisors may possibly save the victim from a second payment.

CLOSING UP THE ACCOUNTS FOR THE PAST YEAR.

For more than a year past the Comptroller, with all the clerical force at his command, has been engaged in the task of arranging and methodizing the accounts of his office, and bringing order out of the confusion and complication in which they were found by him. On Saturday the trial balance sheet for the year was made up and found correct to a fraction. Taking into consideration the many millions of dollars which was pass through the hands of this official, this result is noteworthy and gratifying.

THE CROTON BOARD.

NEW WORK IN PROGRESS AND TO BE COMMENCED.

The Croton Department, equally with others of the City Government, is losing much valuable time and favorable weather for the prosecution of necessary work, by the delay on the part of the State to pass the Tax Levy bill, and by the failure of the Common Council to confirm contracts already awarded.

At the High Bridge, about forty men are employed in unshipping the old pipes so as to be ready for laying down the new seven-foot pipes, with which it is intended to replace those now down.

It is intended also to lay a line of over two miles of four-foot pipe from the new reservoir, so as to connect at the distributing reservoir with those which supply water direct to the City. These pipes alone will hold as much as a reservoir of good size, and will add materially to the quantity of water for the City. With the additional supply afforded by these means, citizens need not apprehend any diminution in their supply hereafter. This work, however, is delayed by the non-confirmation by the Common Council of the contract for the four-inch pipe recently awarded to a New-Jersey Company.

The Department is also now engaged in lowering the large pipes in the Eighth-avenue, from Seventieth to Ninetieth streets, about ten feet, so as to compare with the new level of the avenue. This is an ingenious and scientific operation, for the pipes are let down without interfering with the flow of water. The engineer in charge of this work, GEORGE S. GREEN, Jr., has also charge of the works at the High Bridge.

TAX COMMISSIONERS.

REDUCTIONS OF PERSONAL TAX.

As the day approaches for the closing of the tax books, the office is thronged with applicants for relief from alleged excessive taxation. Out of over 12,000 notices served personally, already some 1,300 have had their taxes reduced, and it is expected that about 2,000 more will be made similarly happy.

LAW REPORTS.

Action for Slander.

R. G. Fairchild & Co. vs. Peter H. Vandervoort.—This is an action for slander, and is now brought on for trial in the Common Pleas, before Judge HILTON.

It appears, from the plaintiffs' statement of the case, that the parties were merchants, dealing in China and glass ware in this City, and that in June, 1856, they obtained credit in business upon the guarantee of Cromwell, Williams & Co.; that on or about June 1, 1856, the defendant said to Warren V. Herrick, a member of the firm of Cromwell, Williams & Co.—which firm were the sponsors of plaintiffs—that Fairchild was not a man of his word; that he had cheated him (defendant) out of $10,000; and that he (Fairchild) was a scoundrel. Plaintiffs aver that similar remarks were made to other firms of the City, and that in consequence many houses have ceased to credit them, and that Cromwell, Williams & Co. have withdrawn their guarantee. The complaint demands $20,000 damages.

The defence is a mere denial of the allegations of the complaint; but leave has been granted to the defendant to amend by justifying. Case still on.

The Ferry Question.

THE BROOKLYN COMMON COUNCIL AGAIN ENJOINED.

The People vs. The Mayor and Common Council of Brooklyn.—This was a motion for an injunction against the Common Council of the City of Brooklyn, to restrain that body from authorizing the Ferry Committee to use any sum of money to be voted by the Common Council from the Treasury of the City, in any attempt to influence the "Courts and Legislature" in regard to "cheap ferriage." The motion is based upon the affidavit of Edward White, a resident and tax-payer of that City, who avers that in a secret session of the Common Council, on or about March 26, they voted $20,000, to be used by their Ferry Committee for such purposes.

It was stated by counsel for the motion that the Courts were spoken of in connection with the Legislature, merely as a blind to divert attention from intended lobby feats at Albany in that regard.

The injunction was granted temporarily, with the usual order to show cause, returnable on the third Monday of this month. The order was allowed by Justice BONNEY at Chambers. The Common Council desire a ferry tax of one cent.

Gilbert Dean for motion.

The Omnibus Case.

The New-York and New-Haven Railroad Company vs. Schuyler, et al.—This case is still in progress before Justice INGRAHAM, at Special Term, and is likely to continue for some time to come.

By a stipulation, the further proof of signatures to the surrendered certificates was dispensed with for the present, and they were submitted on a similar arrangement, as were the transfer books some days since, as stated some days ago. The examination of witnesses in regard to the dividend books is no in progress.

In Pursuit of a Milk Company.

Henry C. Hepburn vs. The American Solidified Milk Company, Thos. R. Payne.—This was a motion at Chambers before Justice BONNEY, on the part of the plaintiff, for an injunction against the defendants, and for a Receiver.

Hepburn sets forth that he is a creditor of the Company to a large amount, and is entitled to have the stock of the Company applied upon the payment of his claim, but that the Treasurer thereof refuses so to do.

The defence is that certain proceedings on the part of the plaintiff are wholly illegal, and that the matters set forth in his complaint are not true. Case still on.

Wm. Fullerton and Arthur & Gardner for plaintiff. G. Dean and Stanley & Langdell for defendants.

BROOKLYN INTELLIGENCE.

Mercantile Library Association Election.

The annual election of officers for this Association will take place to-day. There are two tickets in the field—one called "Regular," the other "Independent"—between the friends of which there is a spirited contest for the succession. Last year the Independents were defeated, as they allege, by illegal practices on the part of the Regulars; but this year they feel stronger and express great confidence in their power to elect their ticket. The Independents held a meeting in the hall of the Polytechnic Institute last evening to ratify their nominations. There was a large attendance, and much enthusiasm prevailed. JOHN WINSLOW, Esq., occupied the Chair, and there was an array of Vice-Presidents and Secretaries which would have given dignity to a political meeting. Addresses were made by the Chairman, Mr. WINSLOW, A J. SPOONER, Esq., Mr. BILLINGS and others.
